JERRY RICHARDSON

OWNER/FOUNDER

WOFFORD COLLEGE
BORN JULY 18, 1936
TWENTY-FOURTH NFL SEASON / TWENTY-SECOND PANTHERS SEASON

Jerry Richardson is a native Carolinian whose dream was to bring NFL football and the world championship he knew as a player in the League to his home. As the Panthers conclude their second decade, Richardson has firmly established the NFL into the Carolina landscape while dedicating his efforts to making the rest of his vision a reality. He is the only person to be inducted into both the North and South Carolina Business and Athletic Halls of Fame.

On October 26, 1993, Richardson became the first former NFL player since George Halas to become an owner when the Carolinas were unanimously awarded the NFL's 29th franchise. More recently, Richardson played a pivotal role as Co-Chairman of the NFL Executive Committee in reaching an unprecedented 10-year Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFLPA in 2011.

"Jerry Richardson has always put himself out there to take those tough jobs and get it done in a way it reflects well on the NFL and this franchise," says NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell of Richardson's efforts on behalf of the League as well as his Panthers.

A lifelong resident of the Carolinas, Richardson and his wife, Rosalind Sallenger Richardson, have a son, Mark, and a daughter, Ashley Richardson Allen, of Charlotte. The Richardsons have nine grandchildren and live in Charlotte.

Edited excerpt from Johnny Unitas: America's Quarterback

A LASTING IMPRESSION

Jerry Richardson, a tall, shy receiver was one of the newcomers to the Colts in 1959. Like Unitas, he came from a small college. He had played college football in South Carolina at Wofford College, and Richardson always seemed to be explaining just where Wofford was.

There were approximately one dozen other receivers running around trying to make a lasting impression, one that would enable them to fill the sole spot on the roster. Richardson's chances were not exactly promising, being taken in the 13th round and the 153rd player overall.

Unitas saw the underdog in Richardson, who had married his college sweetheart, Rosalind Sallenger. When training camp opened for the 1959 season, Richardson had no way to get to practice, so Unitas helped him out. He picked him up in the front of the rented house every morning to drive him to camp. They got along fine. Unitas didn't talk, and neither did the rookie, which suited them both.

THE TOUCHDOWN CATCH

Late in the 1959 championship game, was Baltimore head coach Weeb Ewbank thinking of a field goal to give the Colts an eight point lead in the 4th quarter against the New York Giants? Richardson, the rookie receiver Unitas chauffeured during training camp was waiting to return the favor by bringing in the play that Ewbank wanted.

"I stood next to Weeb and looked at him for the play," recalls Richardson. "I finally asked him what the play was and he remarked, 'Just tell Unitas to score.'"

Given the opportunity to score a seemingly safe field goal or a touchdown Unitas would always go for the six points.

"Raymond Berry was split on the left and would make his cut into the middle underneath the linebacker. I lined up close to the tackle and would swing wide to the outside. It really was Berry's play all the way. He had done it a thousand times. But Unitas looked off Berry, and I looked around and saw the ball coming to me. I squeezed it tight and went into the end zone standing up. I never expected the ball and neither did the Giants."

The rookie's touchdown was the clincher. The Colts moved closer to the championship with a 21-9 lead.

DANNY MORRISON

PRESIDENT

WOFFORD COLLEGE
BORN OCTOBER 26, 1953
SIXTH NFL SEASON / SIXTH PANTHERS SEASON

From a commitment to customer service to the newly constructed renovations in Bank of America Stadium, Danny Morrison's presence as President of the Panthers is clearly evident as the steward of Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson's vision.

His association with the Panthers actually began more than 20 years ago as Morrison coordinated a fundraising effort as Director of Athletics that enabled Wofford College to refurbish its facilities to host an NFL training camp. The Panthers have now been at Wofford for 20 consecutive years and the training camp is regarded among the best in the NFL.

In his capacity as team president, Morrison is responsible for the Panthers business operations and Bank of America Stadium business interests as well as representing the organization in many League matters.

Since assuming those duties, the Panthers have been innovative and aggressive in improving the fan experience while reaching new levels in corporate support and sponsorships.

From working closely with Richardson to providing the impetus for improvements throughout the organization, Morrison has immersed himself into the Panthers.

Most recently, he oversaw an extensive master plan study for Bank of America Stadium, which will result in a $112.5 million renovation over three years. Phase One of the renovation was completed during the past offseason with construction on escalators, scoreboards, and ribbon boards as well as a new distributed sound system. The Panthers have already been one of the NFL leaders in developing a stadium Wi-Fi system.

On the League level, Morrison has also established a presence as the Chair of the NFL Sub-Committee on College Relations and serving on the NFL Fan Experience Club Working Group as well as the NFL Working Group on Coaches Benefits.

Prior to joining the Panthers, Morrison was in his fifth year as Director of Athletics at Texas Christian University. At TCU, Morrison directed the development of the athletic program into one of the most successful in the nation. In the 2008-09 athletic season TCU had 16 of its 20 sports represented in postseason play, finishing with the nation's seventh-ranked football team. A total of 12 sports were nationally ranked and four conference titles were won with three coaches receiving coach of the year honors. Five of the school's 20 programs were ranked in the top 11 in the nation.

The solid foundation established under Morrison was evident even after his departure when the football team recorded an undefeated regular season and the baseball team advanced to the College World Series. TCU and Florida were the only two schools in college athletics to play in a BCS Bowl game and have a team in the College World Series in 2010.

Prior to going to TCU in 2005, Morrison was Commissioner of the Southern Conference. He had joined the conference office after leaving Wofford, where he was senior vice president, in 2001. As Commissioner of the Southern Conference, Morrison established numerous progressive initiatives, creating partnerships with corporate entities while expanding and enhancing the television schedule for the conference through various networks.

Since coming to Charlotte in 2009, Morrison has become an integral part of the community, serving on the Board of Directors for the Charlotte Sports Foundation, the Charlotte Regional Partnership, and Charlotte Center City Partners as well as the Board of Ambassadors for the Levine Children's Hospital and Board of Directors for Project Life.

A native of Burlington, N.C., Morrison attended Wofford, where he lettered four years in basketball and graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1975 with a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics. His pursuit of excellence as athletics director earned him induction into the Wofford Athletics Hall of Fame in 2002 and he currently serves on the school's Board of Trustees.

Morrison obtained a Masters of Education in administration and supervision from the University of North Carolina in 1981 and a doctorate in educational leadership from the University of South Carolina in 2000.

He returned to Wofford in 1985 as the school's first full-time Director of Athletics and served in that capacity for 12 years, guiding the Terriers from NAIA to Division II to Division 1-AA and membership in the Southern Conference.

The linchpin of that transition was the improvement of the facilities to provide a summer home for the Panthers through a capital improvement plan. Since transitioning to the Southern Conference, Wofford has successfully competed in the league, winning the football championship in 2003, 2007, 2010, and 2012, and the basketball title in 2010, 2011, and 2013.

Morrison and his wife, Peggy, have two children: Trey, a graduate of the University of South Carolina, and Meg, who received her degree from Wofford.

RON RIVERA

HEAD COACH

CALIFORNIA
EIGHTEENTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: After inheriting a 2-14 Carolina team as a rookie head coach in 2011, Ron Rivera guided the Panthers back to NFL relevance last season as the team made its first NFL playoff appearance in five years. A 12-4 regular season and NFC South Championship culminated three years of steady growth.

Brought to Carolina for his defensive expertise, Rivera has not disappointed as the Panthers have put together back-to-back top 10 finishes in yards allowed, including the League's No. 2 ranked unit last season. Combined with an efficient clock eating offense, it was enough to lift the Panthers to a team record eight consecutive wins and land Rivera the NFL Coach of the Year award.

Like Rivera, the Panthers rebound has been steady and solid, starting with six wins his first season and seven victories his second year before the division championship team last year. Laying a foundation that includes back-to-back Rookies-of-the-Year in quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly, Rivera has blended veteran and young talent into productive units on both sides of the ball.

The 2013 season again reflected Rivera's ability to maintain control under adversity. After beginning the year 0-2 and later 1-3, the Panthers rallied for eight straight wins before losing and then finished the year with three consecutive victories to equal the best regular season record in team history.

Rivera came to Carolina with a reputation for hard work, attention to detail and preparation. Those were also the qualities he exhibited in his first campaign as the Panthers tripled their win total from the previous season despite no offseason and an epidemic of defensive injuries. Rivera did not even meet his team until they reported to training camp and despite a slow start, held it together to finish with four wins in the final six games.

His success was no surprise, for Rivera has excelled as a coach and player during his 26 years in the NFL, serving as coordinator for the San Diego Chargers top-ranked defense in 2010 and playing linebacker for the Chicago Bears' top-ranked defense and Super Bowl XX championship team in 1985. In 17 seasons as a coach and nine as a player, he has been with teams that have reached the playoffs 17 times, including eight conference championships and two Super Bowls.

The mentality of the Chargers defense that Rivera coached and the Bears defense on which he played resonates within the head coach and he has transferred it to the Panthers.

In 2012, Carolina finished the year ranked 10th in yards allowed, a jump of 18 places from 2011. It was on the strength of that defensive improvement that Carolina won five of its last six games to improve its win total for the second straight year.

Carolina made a similar jump on offense in Rivera's first season. With the addition of quarterback Cam Newton, the Panthers jumped from last to seventh in total offense in 2011.

Rivera's identity has been influenced by two innovative defensive coordinators. As a player, Rivera was coached by Buddy Ryan, the architect of the "46 Defense," which involved blitzing on nearly every down. As a coach, Rivera toiled under the late Jim Johnson, a highly-regarded defensive coordinator renowned for his aggressive approach.

His identity also has been shaped by his family. The son of a U.S. Army officer and the second-youngest of four boys, Rivera learned from a young age about chain of command and many of the principles he teaches and expects from his players. "Coming from a military background, there's a lot of discipline, a lot of structure. That's how I feel when I coach," Rivera said.

Rivera worked with the San Diego Chargers from 2007-10. He coached inside linebackers before taking over as the team's defensive coordinator midway through the 2008 season.

With Rivera's guidance, the pass defense steadied itself – intercepting nine passes and yielding 229.6 passing yards per game and 11 touchdown passes over the final eight games. Those numbers contrasted to the first half of the season when San Diego notched just seven picks and was victimized for 265.1 yards per game and 14 touchdowns through the air.

In Rivera's first full season leading the defense in 2009, the Chargers ranked 16th in total defense and 11th against the pass. One of the unit's strengths was playing tough after offensive turnovers, giving up only 44 points, a figure that tied New England for the second-fewest in the NFL. Those rankings improved in 2010 as San Diego led the NFL with an average of 271.6 total yards allowed per game and gave up a league-low 177.8 passing yards per game. Overall, the Chargers finished in the top five in 11 different defensive statistical categories despite not having any defenders selected to the Pro Bowl.

From 2004-06, Rivera oversaw the Chicago Bears defense, engineering the unit to two top-five finishes in the league. Under Rivera's direction, five different defensive players went to the Pro Bowl: linebacker Lance Briggs, safety Mike Brown, defensive tackle Tommie Harris, linebacker Brian Urlacher and cornerback Nathan Vasher.

In his first season as a defensive coordinator in 2004, Rivera presided over a defense that produced nine more takeaways and 17 more sacks than the previous year and scored a franchise record and NFC high six defensive touchdowns. The Bears also thrived on third down and buckled down inside their own 20-yard line, ranking first in the NFL in third-down efficiency (30.5%) and topping the NFC in red zone defense (42.6%).

The following year, Chicago continued to build on the foundation Rivera laid in 2004. The Bears won their first of two consecutive NFC North titles and stood second in the NFL in total defense. In surrendering the fewest points in the League, Rivera's defense went 43 consecutive quarters without allowing more than seven points – the longest streak in the NFL since 1969. Chicago also led the NFL in red zone defense (32.5%) and rated second in third-down efficiency (31.9%).

During Rivera's last season with the Bears in 2006, the defense paced the NFL with 44 takeaways and finished fifth in the league in total defense and third in scoring defense, helping propel Chicago to the NFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XLI.

Prior to becoming a defensive coordinator, Rivera spent five seasons from 1999-2003 as the linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles, who advanced to the NFC Championship game in each of his final three seasons. Twice during Rivera's tenure with the Eagles, the team finished second in the NFL in scoring defense and in 2001 held all 16 of its opponents to less than 21 points – making them just the fourth team in NFL history to do so.

Prior to returning to Chicago, Rivera spent five seasons in Philadelphia, where a member of his linebacking corps led the team in tackles four times. Rivera gained his first coaching experience with the Bears as defensive quality control coach from 1997-98.

He is just the third Latino head coach in NFL history, joining Tom Flores with the Oakland Raiders from 1979-87 and Seattle Seahawks from 1992-94 and Tom Fears with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-70.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Following his retirement, Rivera went into broadcasting. SEAN McDERMOTT

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

WILLIAM & MARY
SIXTEENTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Sean McDermott is in his fourth season as the Panthers' defensive coordinator following a 2013 campaign in which he was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year after leading a unit that ranked second in the NFL in total defense. In the past two seasons, McDermott has helped the Panthers raise their total defense ranking 26 spots, the best by any team in the League.

The Panthers also ranked second in points allowed and led the league in sacks while finishing second in rushing defense, sixth in passing defense and third in red zone defense. The defense helped propel the Panthers to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008.

With McDermott at the helm, the Panthers defense allowed just 15.1 points per game, its fewest since 1996, and set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed. The Panthers posted 30 takeaways in 2013, tied for sixth in the NFL, and set a team record with four defensive touchdowns.

McDermott's defense featured one of the best front sevens in the NFL. Linebacker Luke Kuechly earned the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year award after topping the team with 176 tackles and tying for the team lead with four interceptions. Fellow linebacker Thomas Davis returned to top form following three knee surgeries to set or tie career highs in tackles (151), sacks (four) and interceptions (two). Defensive end Greg Hardy tied a franchise record with 15 sacks to earn Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors. Fellow defensive end Charles Johnson added 11 sacks as Hardy and Johnson each finished with double-digit sacks for the second consecutive year.

In addition, the Panthers defense received a number of contributions from their youth in 2013, playing with as many as six rookies on the field at the same time in several situations. The Panthers first two draft choices in 2013, defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Kawann Short, earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America.

Facing stiff competition throughout the 2012 campaign with 11 of 16 games against opponents that finished in the top 15 in the NFL in total offense, including nine in the top 10, Carolina rated 10th in the league in total defense – an 18-spot improvement from 2011. Kuechly earned Associated Press NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors after leading the league in tackles with a franchise record 205.

In his first year with the Panthers in 2011, McDermott's unit overcame youth and injuries to force key stops and turnovers that contributed to wins in four of the final six games.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, the last two as defensive coordinator, where he contributed to six division titles and appeared in five NFC Championship games and one Super Bowl. In 2010, McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to a playoff appearance, finishing the year ranked in the top-10 in takeaways, sacks and negative play yardage.

During his first season overseeing the Eagles defense in 2009, McDermott overcame a rash of injuries to help lead the team to the playoffs and direct a unit that ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks. Also, Philadelphia stood second in the league in third down defense and fifth in yards per play allowed. As a result of his efforts, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly.

McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning all phases of the defensive game plan from the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator from 1999-2008.

Tutoring the defensive backs in 2008, McDermott helped the pass defense improve in nearly every statistical category from the previous year, ranking third in the NFL in pass defense and second in net yards per pass play. Two members of the secondary – free safety Brian Dawkins and Asante Samuel – garnered Pro Bowl recognition, while Quintin Mikell captured second-team All-Pro accolades.

From 2004-06, McDermott served as the Eagles' secondary/safeties coach. In 2004, both starting safeties, Dawkins and strong safety Michael Lewis, went to the Pro Bowl. Under McDermott's guidance, Dawkins also made the Pro Bowl in 2005 and 2006.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator, assisting with budget, collective bargaining agreement, salary cap and personnel matters until being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: A team captain and All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. Rodgers was the second and fourth player to handle the ball on the famed five-lateral kickoff return for a touchdown on the final play of the game between the two rivals.

Rodgers then played linebacker and wide receiver for three seasons in the Arena Football League. He appeared in the league's first championship game in 1987, catching a 32-yard touchdown pass for the Denver Dynamite in Arena Bowl I.

RAY BROWN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

ARKANSAS STATE
EIGHTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Assistant offensive line coach Ray Brown is in his fourth season with Carolina in 2014, working with offensive line coach John Matsko.

With 20 years of experience as an NFL player, Brown's tutelage has been instrumental in the development of young Panthers linemen Byron Bell, Nate Chandler and Amini Silatolu. Bell, an undrafted rookie free agent in 2011, has started 41 games at tackle or guard in his first three seasons. Chandler, who played defensive tackle as a rookie for the Panthers in 2012, moved to the offensive line in 2013 and started eight games at guard and tackle. Silatolu, a second-round draft choice from Division II Midwestern State in 2012, started 15 games at guard in his first season and earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America before an injury derailed his second year after just three games.

In 2013 under Brown's guidance, Chandler became a steadying force at right guard when three other players at the position were lost to injury, and two offensive linemen – center Ryan Kalil and tackle Jordan Gross – were selected to the Pro Bowl as the line contributed to an offense that gained 319 first downs, the third-most in team history.

Brown helped the offensive line overcome instability in 2012 as only two starters, Gross and Bell, remained from the original group that began the season. Despite injuries throughout the season, including the loss of Kalil after five games, the Panthers gained 5,771 total net yards and produced 328 first downs, the second-highest marks in team history.

In 2011, Brown's first year on the staff, the offensive line helped set team records with an average of 5.41 yards per carry and 139 rushing first downs and opened holes for the Panthers to become the first team in NFL history to have three players with 700 or more yards rushing in the same season: running back DeAngelo Williams (836), running back Jonathan Stewart (761) and quarterback Cam Newton (706). Kalil was named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors.

Brown spent 2010 as assistant offensive line coach with the San Francisco 49ers. While with San Francisco, he relied on his extensive background and knowledge to help integrate first-round draft picks Anthony Davis at tackle and Mike Iupati at guard into the starting lineup.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Brown served as the Buffalo Bills' assistant offensive line coach for two seasons from 2008-09. In each of his years with the Bills, the offensive line opened holes for 1,000-yard rushers, and Brown helped tackle Jason Peters make the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Brown made his foray into coaching during the second half of the 2006 season as a special assistant on the Washington Redskins' staff. In his role, he assisted with the offensive line.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Originally an eighth-round draft choice (201st overall) by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1986, Brown played in 265 games with 202 starts at guard and tackle for four different franchises – St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals, Washington Redskins, San Francisco 49ers and Detroit Lions.

Brown was a member of the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team and earned Pro Bowl and first-team All-Pro honors with the 49ers in 2001. He became the oldest player to ever start an NFL postseason game when he opened at right guard for the Redskins against the Seattle Seahawks in the 2005 NFC Divisional Playoff at the age of 43 years and 336 days.

An All-Southland Conference selection at Arkansas State, Brown lined up on the offensive line and at tight end for the Indians. As a senior in 1985, he became the first player in conference history to be named all-conference at two different positions in the same season, garnering first-team recognition at tackle and second-team accolades at tight end. He spent three seasons with the 49ers and then three with the Cleveland Browns, making 13 starts and completing 214-of-408 passes for 2,082 yards and eight touchdowns. PETE HOENER

TIGHT ENDS

BRADLEY
SIXTEENTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Pete Hoener is in his fourth season as Carolina's tight ends coach, overseeing one of the most vital positions in the offense.

Hoener has coached Greg Olsen to two of the best seasons by a tight end in team history. Last season, Olsen led the Panthers with 73 receptions for 816 yards and six touchdowns, marking the first time since Wesley Walls in 1997 that a wide receiver did not lead the team in receptions and receiving yards. The 73 receptions are the most ever by a Panthers tight end, surpassing Olsen's own 69 in 2012.

That season, Olsen set a franchise record for the most receiving yards by a tight end with 843 receiving yards, surpassing the previous records set by Walls in 1999. In the process, Olsen became the first Panthers tight end since Walls in 2000 to have a 100-yard receiving game with 102 yards on nine receptions, including two touchdowns, versus Denver (11/11/12).

Not limited to being just receivers, Hoener's group has also helped open running lanes for Carolina to rank among the NFL leaders in rushing in each of the last two seasons, finishing ninth in 2012 (130.5 yards per game) and 11th in 2013 (126.6 yards per game).

In Hoener's first season with the Panthers in 2011, the tight ends combined to catch 85 passes for 1,008 yards and nine touchdowns, the most productive season by a group of tight ends in team history. The position also contributed to a running game that averaged a team-record 5.41 yards per carry and featured three 700-yard rushers.

A veteran of 15 seasons as an NFL assistant, Hoener came to the Panthers after six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers from 2005-10. During his tenure with San Francisco, Hoener played an instrumental role in the development of tight ends Vernon Davis and Delanie Walker, both of whom were drafted by the 49ers in 2006. Hoener helped Davis become one of the most versatile and complete tight ends in the game as both a receiver and blocker, and he turned Walker, a wide receiver in college, into an explosive receiving threat.

In 2010, Davis ranked first on the 49ers with 56 receptions, 914 receiving yards and seven touchdowns to become the first tight end in franchise history to lead the team in receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Walker also experienced a productive campaign, recording career highs with 29 catches and 331 yards.

The previous year, Hoener tutored Davis to one of the most prolific seasons by a tight end in recent NFL history. Davis compiled 78 receptions for 965 yards and 13 touchdowns, an effort that resulted in being selected a Pro Bowl starter. Davis' 13 touchdowns tied the then NFL single-season record for the most touchdowns by a tight end and equaled the most touchdown catches in the NFL, making him the first tight end in the Super Bowl era to lead or tie for the league lead in receiving touchdowns.

Hoener joined the 49ers from the Chicago Bears, where he oversaw the offensive line in 2004. His flexibility was on display, as the Bears employed seven different starting combinations among the front five. Under Hoener's guidance, center Olin Kreutz earned Pro Bowl honors.

Prior to the Bears, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals, serving as the offensive line coach in 2003 and tight ends coach from 2001-02. It marked his second stint with the Cardinals after entering the NFL coaching ranks as the team's tight ends coach from 1985-86 when the franchise was in St. Louis.

While with the Cardinals, Hoener worked with tight end Freddie Jones, who finished first on the team with 44 catches for 358 yards in 2002. Jones became the first tight end to lead the team in receiving since Jackie Smith in 1973, and his 44 receptions were the most by a Cardinals tight end since 1968.

Along with his NFL experience, Hoener coached 24 years on the college level as an offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. Beginning as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1975, he then coached the offensive line at each of his next seven stops: Illinois State in 1977, Indiana State from 1978-84, Illinois from 1987-88, Purdue from 1989-91, Texas Christian from 1992-97 and Iowa State from 1998-99. In addition to his role as offensive line coach, Hoener also held the responsibilities of offensive coordinator at Indiana State, Texas Christian and Iowa State. He handled the running backs at Texas A&M in 2000 before returning to the NFL in 2001.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Hoener played tight end and defensive end at Bradley, where he earned a degree in physical education. Hoener and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters: Jennifer, Kathleen and Lisa. Last name is pronounced Hay-ner.

Led by Luke Kuechly and Thomas Davis, Holcomb's charges were instrumental in the Panthers ranking second in the NFL in total defense, second in rushing defense and sixth in passing defense.

Under Holcomb's guidance, Kuechly followed up his 2012 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year season by earning the 2013 NFL Defensive Player of the Year award, while Davis cemented his return from three knee surgeries to produce the best season of his career.

Kuechly became one of eight players to be named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and NFL Defensive Player of the Year in a career and just the second to earn the awards in their first two seasons, joining Lawrence Taylor. Twice in 2013, Kuechly was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week, including after his franchise-record 26-tackle performance versus New Orleans (12/22/13). Kuechly finished the season with a team-leading 176 tackles, the second-highest total in team history behind his record 205 tackles in 2012.

Davis started all 16 games in 2013 for the first time since the 2008 season as he set or tied career highs in tackles (151), sacks (four) and, interceptions (two). He was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for November after totaling 38 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and one interception as Panthers went 4-0 during the month. He earlier earned NFC Player of the Week recognition for his 10-tackle, two-sack performance in a 35-10 victory at Minnesota (10/13/13).

Holcomb also received solid contributions from veteran Chase Blackburn and rookie A.J. Klein.

Holcomb came to Carolina in 2013 after four seasons with the New York Giants, serving as a defensive assistant from 2011-12 and defensive quality control coach from 2009-10. The Giants ranked in the top seven in the league in total defense in two of Holcomb's four years and capped his first season as a defensive assistant with a victory in Super Bowl XLVI.

He also gained professional coaching experience by participating in the NFL's Minority Internship Program with the New York Jets during mini-camp and training camp in 2007.

Prior to joining the Giants, Holcomb served for 14 years as a college coach. He oversaw the defensive line at Lafayette from 2006-08. Under Holcomb's tutelage, five different defensive linemen claimed All-Patriot League honors. During his final season in 2008, the Leopards led the conference in several defensive categories, including total defense and scoring defense. In his first season in 2006, Holcomb contributed to a unit that finished first in the NCAA FCS in total defense, fourth in rushing defense and eighth in scoring defense.

From 2004-05, Holcomb coached at Kutztown University, where he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in addition to being the interim head coach in the winter of 2005. He previously spent six years from 1998-2003 at Bloomsburg University as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator.

Holcomb worked as linebackers coach, assistant track coach and physical education instructor at Colby College in 1997. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Temple from 1995-96, helping with linebackers.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: A 1993 graduate of West Virginia with a bachelor's degree in sport management, Holcomb earned a master's degree in athletic coaching education from there in 1996. It is a structured approach that enhances the players' physical attributes.

In 2013, Kenn earned the first-ever Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). Kenn previously won the collegiate version of the NSCA award at Arizona State in 2002.

JOHN MATSKO

OFFENSIVE LINE

KENT STATE
TWENTY-THIRD NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: The ability to adapt has been a hallmark of offensive line coach John Matsko's career, and that has been evident in his last two seasons as the Panthers' offensive line coach, providing a steadying influence for a unit that has overcome injuries and instability.

In 2013, Matsko's unit featured five different starting combinations, and only two players – center Ryan Kalil and tackle Jordan Gross – started all 16 games. Kalil was named to the Associated Press All-Pro first team and was selected to his fourth career Pro Bowl, while Gross earned Pro Bowl honors for the third time in his final season. Nate Chandler, who moved to the offensive line during the offseason after playing defensive tackle as a rookie in 2012, started eight games and became a steadying force at right guard when three other players at the position were lost to injury. The group contributed to an offense that gained 319 first downs, the third-most in team history.

In 2012, despite losing Kalil after five games and starting eight different combinations, Matsko's line helped the Panthers gain 5,771 yards and produce 328 first downs, the second-highest marks in team history. Guard Amini Silatolu, a second-round draft choice from Division II Midwestern State, started 15 games and earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America.

In his first season as the Panthers' offensive line coach in 2011, Matsko led a unit that helped Carolina total more than 100 yards rushing in a franchise-record 14 consecutive games en route to accumulating 2,408 yards on the ground, the third-highest total in team history.

The Panthers set team records with an average of 5.41 yards per carry and 139 rushing first downs and became the first team in NFL history to feature three 700-yard rushers in running back DeAngelo Williams (836), running back Jonathan Stewart (761) and quarterback Cam Newton (706). Kalil was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl and first as a starter and earned second-team All-Pro honors.

From 2008-10, Matsko helped the Baltimore Ravens rank in the top five in the NFL in rushing in two of his three seasons with the team, finishing fourth in 2008 and fifth in 2009. He mentored tackle Michael Oher, who made the NFL's all-rookie team in 2009, and in 2008 the team permitted only 33 sacks, the second fewest in team history, while featuring the league's youngest offensive line.

Prior to Baltimore, Matsko spent two seasons as offensive line coach of the Kansas City Chiefs from 2006-07. Despite utilizing five different starting combinations due to injuries in 2006, the line paved the way for the Chiefs to place ninth in the NFL in rushing and compile a team-record 11 100-yard rushing games. Under Matsko's guidance, guards Will Shields and Brian Waters earned Pro Bowl honors.

Nowhere was Matsko's versatility as an outstanding teacher in both the run and pass blocking aspects of offensive line play on display more than during his tenure with the St. Louis Rams from 1999-2005. With Matsko presiding over the offensive line for one of the most dynamic offenses in NFL history, the Rams led the league in total offense for three consecutive years from 1999-2001, including a record 5,232 yards in 2000, and won Super Bowl XXXIV. He played an instrumental role in the development of two Pro Bowlers – tackle Orlando Pace and guard Adam Timmerman.

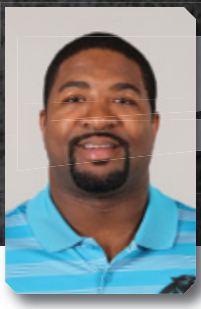
Matsko began his NFL coaching career as offensive line coach of the Phoenix Cardinals in 1992 and served in that capacity for two seasons. In 1993, the offensive front opened holes for the Cardinals to have their first 1,000-yard rusher since 1985. He then moved to New Orleans in 1994 and coached three seasons with the Saints. Under Matsko's tutelage, tackle Willie Roaf earned three Pro Bowl selections, and the Saints rated seventh in the league for fewest sacks allowed in 1994 and 1995 and third in 1996.

Following his stint with New Orleans, Matsko assumed the same role from 1997-98 with the New York Giants, where they improved both their pass protection and run blocking. The Giants allowed 24 fewer sacks and jumped from 19th to seventh in the NFL in rushing in 1997 compared to 1996.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Matsko spent 17 years on the college level. He worked as a graduate assistant at Miami (Ohio) from 1974-75 and returned as offensive line coach in 1977 after being the head coach at Danbury High School in Lakeside-Marblehead, Ohio, in 1976. Matsko served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at North Carolina from 1978-84 prior to stops for one year each as offensive line coach at Navy in 1985 and Arizona in 1986. He joined Southern California as offensive line coach in 1987 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989 for his final three seasons with the Trojans.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Matsko played fullback at Kent State and lettered three years from 1970-72. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business education in 1973 and later earned a master's degree in education from Miami (Ohio) in 1976. Matsko and his wife, Kim, have four children: two daughters, Marie and Liz, and two sons, John and Michael. Marie is married to Roque Jimenez and the couple has three children, Jackie, Lucas and Emily. Liz is married to Scott Munter and the couple has two children, Brooklyn and Zachary. Michael is married to Ariel Scoggins with a son Noah. John is married to Casey Cunningham.

Pro coach: Phoenix Cardinals 1992-93, New Orleans Saints 1994-96, New York Giants 1997-98, St. Louis Rams 1999-2005, Kansas City Chiefs 2006-07, Baltimore Ravens 2008-10, Joined Panthers in 2011.



SAM MILLS III

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

MONTCLAIR STATE
TENTH NFL SEASON / TENTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Sam Mills III is in his 10th season with Carolina and fourth as assistant defensive line coach in 2014. Working with defensive line coach Eric Washington in 2013, Mills assisted with a unit that helped the Panthers lead the NFL with 60 sacks and rank second in total defense, second in rushing defense and sixth in passing defense. Carolina recorded six or more sacks in four games, including a franchise-record nine at Atlanta (12/29/13).

Defensive end Greg Hardy tied a team record with 15 sacks in 2013 to earn his first Pro Bowl selection and second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors, while fellow end Charles Johnson posted 11 sacks to became the first player in team history with at least nine sacks in four consecutive seasons. Hardy and Johnson have developed into one of the best pass rushing duos in the NFL, combining for 49.5 sacks in 2012-13 – tied for the most in the NFL.

Mills also played a key part in the development of the Panthers first two 2013 draft choices, defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Kawann Short. Both players earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America.

In 2012, Mills worked with a line that was responsible for 37 of Carolina's 39 sacks. Johnson led the team with 12.5, and Hardy posted 11 as they became the first Panthers tandem to record double-digit sacks since 2002. The Panthers finished the season ninth in the NFL in sacks per pass play at 6.6 percent and tallied six or more sacks in three games.

In 2011, Mills assisted with a line that accounted for 25.5 of the team's 31 sacks. Johnson paced the team with nine sacks, and young players received valuable experience as three rookies started games at defensive tackle.

Prior to the 2011 season, Mills added assistant defensive line coach to his title along with serving as the Panthers defensive quality control coach, though he actually has been working with the defensive line since 2006.

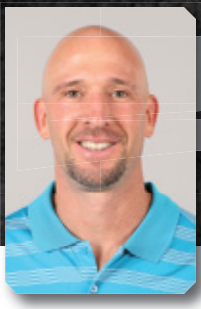
In 2010, Mills helped Johnson become the fifth player in team history to collect 10 or more sacks in a season with 11.5. The previous year, he contributed to a rejuvenated Panthers defensive line that produced 24.5 of the team's 31 sacks.

After spending the 2005 season in a dual role as a strength and conditioning and defensive assistant, Mills was promoted to defensive quality control coach in 2006. As defensive quality control coach, Mills was responsible for breaking down vast amounts of information and analyzing opponents' statistical tendencies to assist in game-plan preparation and the production of the defensive playbook.

Mills is no stranger to the organization as his position on the coaching staff is the culmination of his path as a youth. His father, Sam, is the only Panthers player to have his number retired and is the only player inducted into the team's Hall of Honor. When his father played for the Panthers, Mills worked as a ball boy at training camp and later in the equipment room before joining the strength and conditioning program.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Mills followed in his father's footsteps by playing at Montclair (N.J.) State, where the elder Mills was an NCAA Division II All-American at linebacker. He started 20 games in two seasons at defensive back for the Red Hawks and totaled 71 tackles, two interceptions, 14 passes defensed, three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

HISTORY: Defensive back: Monclair State 1997-1999. Pro coach: Joined Panthers in 2005.



RICKY PROEHL

WIDE RECEIVERS

WAKE FOREST
FOURTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Following 17 years as an NFL player, former wide receiver Ricky Proehl is in his fourth season as a member of Carolina's coaching staff and second as wide receivers coach in 2014. He served as assistant wide receivers coach in 2012 and as an offensive consultant in 2011.

Proehl is charged with leading a corps full of new faces as at least the team's top four wide receivers will be different from 2013 following the offseason departures of Steve Smith, Brandon LaFell, Ted Ginn, Jr. and Domenik Hixon.

In 2013, Proehl coached a group that did not feature a standout performer but had solid contributions from its top three receivers – Smith, LaFell and Ginn – as each posted more than 500 yards and at least four touchdowns. Under Proehl's tutelage, Ginn produced his best season since 2008. Ginn, just one year removed from a one-catch season in San Francisco, registered 36 catches for 556 yards and a career-high five touchdowns. Proehl also guided LaFell to a career-high 49 receptions and five touchdowns.

As assistant wide receivers coach in 2012, Proehl helped former teammate Smith record his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season and seventh overall as Smith became the 27th player in NFL history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards. Additionally, Proehl tutored LaFell, who set a career high with 677 receiving yards on 44 receptions with four touchdowns.

As an offensive consultant in 2011, Proehl worked primarily with wide receivers. He assisted with a group that was comprised of the veteran Smith and a host of young receivers. Smith earned his fifth Pro Bowl selection after finishing fifth in the NFL with 1,394 yards on 79 receptions with seven touchdowns, while LaFell emerged as a starter by season's end, tallying 36 catches for 613 yards and three touchdowns.

Proehl finished his career with 669 receptions for 8,878 yards and 54 touchdowns. He appeared in 244 games with 110 starts for the Phoenix/Arizona Cardinals, Seattle Seahawks, Chicago Bears, St. Louis Rams, Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts. Proehl earned all-rookie honors in 1990 and was a member of four Super Bowl teams, including championship teams with the Rams and Colts. In three seasons with the Panthers, he registered 86 catches for 1,327 yards and eight touchdowns and participated on two playoff teams.

But Proehl's playing days were distinguished by far more than his statistical achievements. He earned a reputation as a sure-handed and clutch player, making dramatic plays at critical times.

In the 2003 season opener versus Jacksonville, his first game with Carolina, Proehl caught a 12-yard touchdown on fourth down with 16 seconds left to cap a come-from-behind win and propel the Panthers on their Super Bowl run. During the 1999 postseason, he snagged a one-handed, 30-yard touchdown reception with 4:44 to play that lifted St. Louis to a victory over Tampa Bay in the NFC Championship.

Noted for the example he set for young players with his hard work, savvy and veteran leadership, Proehl essentially began coaching while still playing. A student of the game and an excellent communicator, he mentored teammates like Isaac Bruce and Torry Holt in St. Louis and Smith in Carolina.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Since retiring following the 2006 season, Proehl has owned and operated Proehlific Park, a family sports complex and fitness center, in Greensboro, N.C.

A standout wide receiver at Wake Forest from 1986-89 before being selected in the third round (58th overall) of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Cardinals, Proehl left the university as the holder of almost every major receiving record. He still ranks as the Demon Deacons' all-time leader with 2,949 receiving yards and 25 touchdown catches, and his 188 receptions stand third. Proehl led the team in receiving three consecutive seasons and finished first in the Atlantic Coast Conference with 65 catches for a then school-record 1,053 yards as a senior in 1989.

Proehl majored in speech communications at Wake Forest. In recognition of his college and professional accomplishments, he was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in May 2011.

He and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Alexandria, and two sons, Austin and Blake.

JOHN RAMSDELL

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE
NINETEENTH NFL SEASON / FIRST PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Instrumental in the development of three Pro Bowl quarterbacks, John Ramsdell lends almost two decades of NFL coaching expertise to the Panthers as the team's senior offensive assistant. Philip Rivers, Kurt Warner and Marc Bulger have all benefited from working with Ramsdell in his 18 years as an NFL coach.

During Ramsdell's seven seasons with San Diego from 2006-12, Rivers earned four Pro Bowl selections and became the third player in NFL history to amass more than 4,000 passing yards in four consecutive years. Ramsdell's first season as the Chargers' quarterbacks coach in 2006 coincided with Rivers' first year as a starter when he led the NFL with a fourth-quarter passer rating of 116.6 and was chosen to his first Pro Bowl.

Under Ramsdell's direction from 2008-10, Rivers was the only quarterback in the league to post a passer rating of 100 or more each season. In 2008, he ranked first in the NFL with a passer rating of 105.5, tied for the league lead with a team-record 34 touchdown passes and recorded his first 4,000-yard campaign. Rivers tallied an NFL-best and career-high 4,710 yards passing in 2010, and he became the fifth player in league history to produce consecutive 4,500-yard passing seasons in 2011.

Prior to San Diego, Ramsdell coached quarterbacks for six of his 11 seasons with St. Louis from 1995-2005. With Ramsdell overseeing the Rams' signal callers, Warner won two MVP awards, and Bulger generated three of the top six passing games in team history.

In 1999, Warner passed for 4,353 yards and 41 touchdowns to capture his first MVP award and help the Rams win Super Bowl XXXIV. The next year, Ramsdell worked with a group of quarterbacks that included Trent Green along with Warner and set a team record with 5,232 yards passing. Warner won his second MVP award in 2001 after throwing for 4,830 yards and 36 touchdowns.

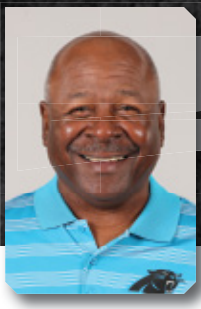
With Warner suffering through an injury-plagued season in 2002, Ramsdell prepared Bulger to lead the offense. Then in Ramsdell's only year as the Rams' wide receivers coach in 2003, Torry Holt topped the NFL in receptions and receiving yards with career highs of 117 catches and 1,696 yards. Ramsdell returned to coaching quarterbacks in 2004 and guided Bulger to a then career-high 3,964 yards with 21 touchdowns and Pro Bowl recognition.

Ramsdell joined the Rams as an offensive assistant in 1995 and spent 1996-98 as tight ends and H-backs coach until being appointed quarterbacks coach in 1999.

Before entering the NFL, Ramsdell gained 19 years of experience on the college level, the last 12 mentoring wide receivers at Oregon from 1983-94. He began his career at San Francisco State in 1976, tutoring wide receivers for two seasons. Ramsdell then served as recruiting coordinator, special teams assistant and assistant secondary coach at Long Beach State in 1978 and moved to Pacific the following year. During his four-year tenure at Pacific from 1979-82, he assisted with the secondary, kicking game, tight ends and wide receivers.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Ramsdell played running back at Springfield (Mass.) College and lettered two years from 1972-75. He graduated with a bachelor's degree and then earned a master's degree from San Francisco State. He and his wife Brenda have a son Christopher and a daughter Amy.

HISTORY: Running back: Springfield (Mass.) College 1972-75. College coach: San Francisco State 1976-77, Long Beach State 1978, Pacific 1979-82, Oregon 1983-94. Pro coach: St. Louis Rams 1995-2005, San Diego Chargers 2006-12, joined Panthers in 2014.



JIM SKIPPER

RUNNING BACKS

WHITTIER COLLEGE
TWENTY-EIGHTH NFL SEASON / ELEVENTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Jim Skipper returned to Carolina in 2013 after working as the running backs coach for the Tennessee Titans from 2011-12.

In Skipper's two years with the Titans, running back Chris Johnson surpassed 1,000 yards on the ground, giving Skipper eight different 1,000-yard rushers in his 27 seasons as an NFL coach.

Skipper previously served as the Panthers' running backs coach from 2002-10 in addition to being assistant head coach for the final five years. During Skipper's tenure, Carolina's running game thrived despite using 10 different starting halfbacks as he consistently coaxed the best out of his runners. Three players (Stephen Davis, Jonathan Stewart and DeAngelo Williams) reached the 1,000-yard rushing mark, and eight (Dee Brown, Davis, DeShaun Foster, Nick Goings, Mike Goodson, Lamar Smith, Stewart and Williams) produced at least one 100-yard rushing game.

In 2009, Stewart and Williams became the first set of teammates in NFL history to each rush for more than 1,100 yards in the same season as the Panthers set a franchise record and finished third in the NFL with 2,498 yards. Stewart led the way with 1,133 yards, the third-highest total in team history, while Williams became the first player in team history to record consecutive 1,000-yard seasons and earned his first Pro Bowl selection after compiling 1,117 yards.

A year earlier, Williams set team records with 1,515 rushing yards and 18 rushing touchdowns, and Stewart established team rookie marks with 836 yards and 10 touchdowns (since broken) to propel Carolina to a ranking of third in the NFL with 2,437 rushing yards. Along the way, they became the first Panthers to both gain 100 yards in the same game, accomplishing the feat versus Detroit and versus Tampa Bay en route to a team single-game record 299-yard performance.

However, Skipper's best effort may have come in 2004 when Carolina started four different halfbacks because of injuries. Over the last eight games, Goings, a former undrafted rookie free agent, recorded five 100-yard outings. That came after a 2003 season in which Skipper helped the Panthers to 2,091 rushing yards and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVIII, while Davis earned Pro Bowl honors with 1,444 yards, the second most in team history.

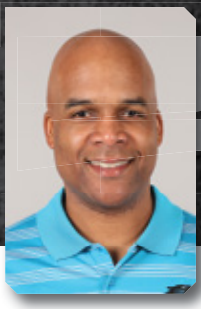
Skipper originally came to Carolina after spending four years with the New York Giants from 1997-2000 and 2001 as head coach of the XFL's San Francisco Demons. In his first season with New York, the Giants finished seventh in the NFL in rushing with an average of 124.3 yards per game. The next year, Gary Brown ground out 1,063 yards, and Tiki Barber followed with 1,006 yards in 2000.

He began his NFL coaching career as running backs coach with the New Orleans Saints in 1986 and served in that capacity through 1995. During his 10 years with New Orleans, Skipper coached two Pro Bowlers, Rueben Mayes and Dalton Hilliard. Mayes' 1,353 yards in 1986 and Hilliard's 1,262 in 1989 still stand among the top five totals in Saints history.

In 1996, Skipper moved to Arizona and coached one season with the Cardinals. Under his direction, fullback Larry Centers rushed for 425 yards and led all NFL running backs with 99 receptions for 766 yards to earn Pro Bowl honors.

Skipper entered coaching as the defensive backs coach at Cal Poly-Pomona in 1974 before joining San Jose State in 1977. He switched to offense as running backs coach at Pacific in 1979 and then coached at Oregon from 1980-82. Skipper made his foray into the professional coaching ranks with the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-85.

HISTORY: Defensive back Whittier College 1971-72. College coach: Cal Poly-Pomona 1974-76, San Jose State 1977-78, Pacific 1979, Oregon 1980-82. Pro coach: Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars (USFL) 1983-85, New Orleans Saints 1986-95, Arizona Cardinals 1996, New York Giants 1997-2000, San Francisco Demons (XFL) 2001 (head coach), Carolina Panthers 2002-10, Tennessee Titans 2011-12, rejoined Panthers in 2013.



ERIC WASHINGTON

DEFENSIVE LINE

GRAMBLING STATE
SEVENTH NFL SEASON / FOURTH PANTHERS SEASON

COACHING: Eric Washington is in his fourth season as Carolina's defensive line coach and has added to a history of developing players at the college and professional level.

In 2013, Washington's defensive line helped the Panthers rank second in the NFL in total defense and sixth in passing defense as 40 of the team's NFL-leading 60 sacks came from defensive linemen. Carolina recorded six or more sacks in four games, including a franchise-record nine at Atlanta (12/29/13).

Under Washington's guidance, defensive ends Greg Hardy and Charles Johnson have developed into one of the best pass rushing duos in the NFL. Hardy tied a team record with 15 sacks in 2013 to earn his first Pro Bowl selection and second-team Associated Press All-Pro honors, while Johnson notched 11 sacks to become the first player in team history with at least nine sacks in four consecutive seasons. From 2012-13, Hardy and Johnson combined for 49.5 sacks, tied for the most in the NFL and were the only pair of teammates in the NFL with double-digit sacks in each of those two seasons.

In addition, Washington was instrumental in the development of the Panthers first two 2013 draft choices, defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Kawann Short. Lotulelei, the 14th overall selection, and Short, the 44th overall selection, earned All-Rookie honors from the Professional Football Writers of America.

Washington's defensive line in 2012 helped the Panthers rank 10th in the NFL in total defense as 37 of their 39 sacks came from the defensive line. Carolina finished the season ninth in the NFL in sacks per pass play at 6.6 percent and tallied six or more sacks in three games.

That season, Hardy and Johnson became the first Panthers tandem to record double-digit sacks since 2002. Johnson led the team and ranked sixth in the NFL with 12.5 sacks in addition to forcing seven fumbles, the second most in the league. Hardy posted 11 sacks, bettering the seven he totaled in his first two seasons (2010-11) combined. Defensive tackle Dwan Edwards provided push from the inside, registering a career-high six sacks after notching just 5.5 in his previous eight seasons.

In 2011, Washington was charged with mentoring a young group that started three different rookies at defensive tackle. The unit, led by Johnson, produced 25.5 of the team's 31 sacks. Johnson paced the Panthers with nine sacks, while second-year player Hardy tied for second with four sacks.

Washington joined Carolina after spending 2008-10 with the Chicago Bears. Elevated to defensive line coach in 2010, Washington presided over a group that accounted for 25 of the team's 34 sacks and helped the Bears rank ninth in the NFL in total defense, second in rushing defense and fourth in scoring defense. Along the defensive line, he coached Pro Bowler Julius Peppers and end Israel Idonije, who tied for the team lead with eight sacks each.

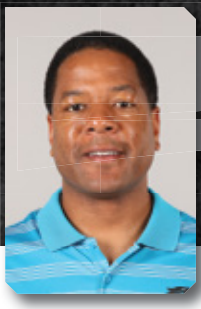
Washington worked the previous two seasons as Chicago's defensive assistant/assistant defensive line coach. He gained his first professional coaching experience by twice participating in the NFL's Minority Internship Program, assisting with the Bears defensive line during training camp in 2005 and aiding the Atlanta Falcons linebackers during training camp in 2004.

From 2004-07, Washington served as the defensive line coach at Northwestern. With the Wildcats, he developed several pro prospects. End Luis Castillo was selected in the first round by the San Diego Chargers in 2005, and tackle Barry Cofield was chosen in the fourth round by the New York Giants in 2006. Washington also tutored end Corey Wootton, who garnered honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition as a freshman and was drafted in the fourth round by the Bears in 2010.

Before his arrival at Northwestern, Washington oversaw the defensive line and kickoff coverage team at Ohio for three seasons from 2001-03. He began his college coaching career at Texas A&M as a graduate assistant in 1997.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Washington played at Grambling State University from 1989-90 for legendary head coach Eddie Robinson and earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Grambling in 1993. Commissioned as a Naval Reserve Officer in 1998, Washington was assigned to the Naval Academy Preparatory School in Newport, R.I., where he served as the defensive coordinator of the football team for three years. Washington and his wife, Amy, have a son, Ellis.

HISTORY: Tight end: Grambling State 1989-90. College coach: Texas A&M 1997, Ohio 2001-03, Northwestern 2004-07. Pro coach: Chicago Bears 2008-10, Joined Panthers in 2011.



STEVE WILKS

SECONDARY / PASS DEFENSE COORDINATOR

APPALACHIAN STATE
NINTH NFL SEASON / THIRD PANTHERS SEASON

Coaching: During the 2013 season, Steve Wilks directed a unit that helped the Panthers finish second in the NFL in total defense and sixth in passing defense despite numerous personnel changes. Defensive backs were responsible for 16 of the team's 20 interceptions, including a team-record four returned for touchdowns. Carolina also limited opponents to an 81.4 passer rating, which ranked 10th in the NFL.

Wilks' secondary received significant contributions from rookies and veterans alike. Undrafted rookie cornerback Melvin White started the last 10 games and posted two interceptions with one touchdown, while safety Robert Lester, another undrafted rookie, tallied three interceptions. Mike Mitchell, who started 14 games at free safety after a season-ending injury to Charles Godfrey, was one of two players in the NFL with at least four interceptions, three sacks and two forced fumbles, and cornerback Captain Munnerlyn returned his only two interceptions for touchdowns.

Despite dealing with injuries throughout the season in 2012, Wilks guided a Panthers pass defense that improved from 24th in 2011 to 13th en route to an overall ranking of 10th in the NFL in total defense. Godfrey led a group that received contributions from a number of young players as two rookies and two second-year players combined to start 22 games. The secondary propelled the Panthers to a first-place finish in the NFL in average yards after catch, limited opponents to 38 pass plays of 20-or-more yards – which equaled the third fewest in the league – and returned three interceptions for touchdowns.

Wilks, a Charlotte native, returned home to Carolina from the San Diego Chargers, where he oversaw the secondary from 2009-11. He was promoted to assistant head coach-secondary in 2011 from secondary coach. The Chargers' pass defense vastly improved under Wilks' guidance. Prior to his arrival, San Diego ranked 31st in the NFL against the pass but jumped to 11th in 2009, first 2010 and 13th in 2011.

In 2010, Wilks and then San Diego defensive coordinator Ron Rivera formed a formidable duo when the Chargers led the NFL in total defense and pass defense. San Diego limited opponents to a 76.2 passer rating, the fourth lowest in the league, and allowed 18 touchdown passes, the fifth fewest in the NFL.

He came to San Diego following three seasons as defensive backs coach for the Chicago Bears. One of Wilks' strengths while with the Bears was his emphasis on creating turnovers.

From 2006-08, cornerbacks and safeties accounted for 42 of the team's 62 interceptions, including 16 in 2006 when Chicago – with Rivera as defensive coordinator – led the NFL with 44 takeaways, won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XLI. The Bears' defensive backs also forced 20 fumbles during Wilks' tenure, the most in the NFL in that span.

Before joining the Bears, Wilks coached 11 seasons on the college level, honing his craft as a defensive backs coach, defensive coordinator and head coach. He went to Washington as defensive backs coach in 2005 from Notre Dame, where he helped the Irish earn a bowl bid in his only season there in 2004.

Previously, Wilks was the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University in 2003, producing an All-American cornerback, and was co-defensive coordinator at East Tennessee State in 2002 for a unit that featured three defensive backs who earned All-Southern Conference honors. He also had one-year stints as the defensive backs coach at Appalachian State in 2001 and Illinois State in 2000.

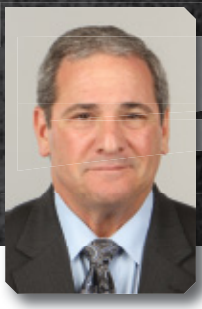
Wilks spent 1999 as the head coach at Savannah State, steering the team to a 5-6 record, after serving as the team's defensive coordinator from 1997-98. In 1998, he earned Division II defensive coordinator of the year as the Tigers led the nation in total defense. Wilks began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Johnson C. Smith in Charlotte in 1995.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: A product of West Charlotte High School, Wilks played defensive back at Appalachian State from 1987-91 and finished his career with 103 tackles, four interceptions and four blocked kicks. He attended training camp with the Seattle Seahawks in 1992 and lined up at defensive back and wide receiver for the Charlotte Rage of the Arena Football League in 1993.

Wilks graduated from Appalachian State with a degree in communications.

Wilks and his wife, Marcia, have two daughters, Marissa and Melanni, and a son, Steven.

HISTORY: Defensive back: Appalachian State 1987-91. Pro defensive back/wide receiver: Charlotte Rage (AFL) 1993. College coach: Johnson C. Smith 1995-96, Savannah State 1997-99 (head coach 1999), Illinois State 2000, Appalachian State 2001, East Tennessee State 2002, Bowling Green State University 2003, Notre Dame 2004, Washington 2005. Pro coach: Chicago Bears 2006-08, San Diego Chargers 2009-11, joined Panthers in 2012.



DAVE GETTLEMAN

GENERAL MANAGER

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE
BORN FEBRUARY 21, 1951
TWENTY-NINTH NFL SEASON / SECOND PANTHERS SEASON

After waiting a football lifetime for his chance as an NFL general manager Dave Gettleman made the most of the opportunity in his first year with the Panthers. The NFC South division title, the first playoff appearance since 2008, and a team record eight-game winning streak all occurred under his watch after being named general manager January 9, 2013.

Coming into a salary-cap challenged situation, Gettleman worked hard and creatively to keep the core of the Panthers roster together when many thought that was not possible.

Then facing a draft without the benefit of a season of seeing the college prospects first-hand, he engineered a draft that produced two players – defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Kawann Short – named to the NFL All-Rookie team despite having only five selections. In addition, fifth-round choice A.J. Klein was a part-time starter and provided solid contributions to the Panthers No. 2 ranked defense.

If Gettleman has approached his new position like a thirsty man who at last found water, it is understandable. After applying his trade for nearly 30 years in the NFL, the long-time scout is now getting his chance to direct a team's program.

He brings experience and knowledge from winning organizations, a fact that was not lost on Panthers Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson.

"I was very impressed with Dave's experience and think he will be a very good fit for our organization," said Richardson upon selecting Gettleman. "He has an extensive background in personnel and comes from an organization in the New York Giants that I hold in high regard and he played an instrumental role in their success."

"I am honored and thrilled to have the opportunity to work in the Panthers organization," said Gettleman when named. "It is similar to the Giants organization in which I have had the privilege of working the last 15 years and has a lot of pieces in place for success."

In just over a year, Gettleman has also become one of the most important of pieces in the organization, impressing onlookers with his ability to maneuver through the intricacies of the salary cap while deepening the talent on the Carolina roster.

In the five years prior to coming to Carolina, he saw firsthand what a solid salary cap structure and a deep roster could do as the Giants won two Super Bowl titles. In both of those championships, Gettleman had the critical role of overseeing the addition of veteran talent as the team's Pro Personnel Director. After the second Super Bowl title in 2011, he became the team's Senior Pro Personnel Analyst, ending a run of 13 years as the Director of Pro Personnel.

However, his association with winning did not just start with the Giants.

Overall, Gettleman has been a part of six Super Bowl teams, including three winners. He was with Buffalo in 1990 and 1991, Denver in 1997 and the Giants in 2000, 2007 and 2011. The Broncos and the 2007 and 2011 Giants both won the championship. Gettleman has been associated with 14 playoff teams in his NFL career.

Self-described and by those who know him best as a 'grinder,' Gettleman paid his dues as a college scout, crisscrossing the country in search of young talent for 11 years before becoming the Giants Director of Pro Personnel in 1999. In that position he played a critical role in supplementing the team's drafted talent with veterans who could mean the difference between winning and losing.

Both of the New York championship teams were peppered with players acquired through the pro personnel department, including eight starters in both 2007 and 2011, plus the kicker and punter, as well as a number of key situational players.

His career in the National Football League began in 1986 as a scouting department intern for the Buffalo Bills. He became a full-time scout for Buffalo after the 1987 draft. Following a year as an area scout, Gettleman was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO scouting combine and continued in that capacity through the 1992 draft as the Northeast area scout.

From June 1992 through December 1993, Gettleman worked as a regional scout for BLESTO, concentrating in the East and Midwest regions. In January 1994, Gettleman joined the scouting department of the Broncos, for whom he spent more than four years scouting the East and Southeast.

It was as a member of the Broncos that he tasted his first Super Bowl championship in 1997 after near misses with the Bills in 1990 and 1991.

He began his football career as a teacher-coach at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. As the head coach (1973-1978, 1980-1981), he led his teams to a pair of league titles. He spent a season as a volunteer assistant at Cal State Long Beach (1979). Gettleman joined the faculty of Kingston High School in 1982 and became the head coach in 1984, when he led his team to a Section I Bowl Berth.

Born in Boston, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1972. He was an offensive tackle on the freshman football team. Gettleman has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University (1986) in Miami. Gettleman and his wife, Joanne, have three children: Aaron, Sam, and Ana Jane.

DON GREGORY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

WHITWORTH COLLEGE
BORN JANUARY 15, 1956
EIGHTEENTH NFL SEASON / EIGHTH PANTHERS SEASON

Don Gregory was named Director of College Scouting for the Panthers during the summer of 2006 and his impact is visible throughout the Carolina lineup, but nowhere more than at the heart of the offensive and defensive units where quarterback Cam Newton and linebacker Luke Kuechly earned back-to-back NFL Rookie-of-the-Year Awards in 2011 and 2012 before becoming Pro Bowl teammates last season.

Newton was named the League's Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year in 2011 after breaking Peyton Manning's first-year passing records and Kuechly, the ninth selection in the 2012 Draft, was named the NFL Defensive Rookie-of-the Year after helping the Panthers move from 28th to 10th in total yardage in 2012.

It is only the fourth time in League history that a team has selected Offensive and Defensive Rookies-of-the-Year in back-to-back seasons and only the second time it has happened in the last 40 seasons.

First under former general manager Marty Hurney and now under Dave Gettleman, Gregory has played a most instrumental role in the draft, which last year resulted in the selection of two players on the NFL All-Rookie team in defensive tackles Star Lotulelei and Kawann Short.

His success is no surprise, for Gregory is so diligent in his quest to uncover the best talent that he chooses to live in Dallas, where accessibility to the country's colleges is seldom more than a two-hour flight away.

Each fall and spring he sees approximately 300 players, stretching from coast-to-coast in a routine reminiscent of Groundhog Day. It's a schedule that has taken him to Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Alabama, South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and California in a 10-day period.

However, searching the country for talent is not something that is new to Gregory, who chose scouting over coaching following a successful college playing career.

"I made that choice largely because of a scout named Gene Bates, who had scouted me when I was in college and became my mentor," says Gregory. "I went into high school coaching for eight years after playing, and Gene was instrumental in my transition into scouting as well as my development there."

Starting with a personnel position with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, Gregory began his climb up the pro ladder. He worked with the Eskimos from 1986-1990 before going to the World League of American Football to scout the northwest for the San Antonio Riders in 1990 and 1991. While with San Antonio, Gregory worked with current Panthers college scout John Peterson, who served as general manager of the Riders, and current Oregon State head coach Mike Riley, who was head coach of the Riders. Gregory and Riley remain lifelong friends.

Gregory returned to Edmonton in 1992 and remained there until moving to the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL for two years.

Gregory moved to the National Football League in 1995 as a scout with the San Diego Chargers and remained with the team until 1999.

In 2001, a move to the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL as Director of Player Personnel took Gregory out of the NFL, but he soon returned as a member of the Kansas City Chiefs scouting department. With the Chiefs, he served as a national scout in the south and southeast for five years.

Familiar with his work ethic and dedication to his profession, Hurney tabbed Gregory seven years ago to become the Panthers director of college scouting. However, Gregory chose to keep his home in Dallas rather than move to Charlotte.

"I guess I've made my name in this business by being a grinder and that involves a lot of travel," explains Gregory. "I try to set an example by being on the road myself, and it helps you understand the issues scouts experience. Dallas is pretty centrally located in the middle of the country, so I can go east or west and be pretty much anywhere within a few hours."

A native of Pearl City, Hawaii, Don moved to Great Falls, Mont., in the sixth grade and played college football at Wenatchee Valley College in 1974 and 1975 before transferring in 1976 to Portland State, where he played in the "run and shoot" offense of coach Mouse Davis and quarterback June Jones.

Gregory finished his college career at Whitworth College, where he received a bachelor's of science degree in 1979. He then coached high school football in Washington before joining the Eskimos.

Gregory has a 14-year old daughter, Bailey.

MARK KONCZ

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

KANSAS
BORN DECEMBER 14, 1966
TWENTIETH NFL SEASON / TWENTIETH PANTHERS SEASON

Mark Koncz is an integral part of the Panthers football operations as Director of Pro Scouting, annually providing a steady stream of veteran talent to the team's roster. The ability of Koncz to discover available talent has paid dividends year after year, whether as an offseason acquisition or an in-season waiver wire pickup.

His ability to recognize and mine talent to fit needs was once again evident last season when pro personnel free agent additions peppered the Panthers NFC South Championship roster. Safety Mike Mitchell, wide receiver Ted Ginn, Jr, cornerback Drayton Florence, and kicker Graham Gano were just a few of those who made significant contributions.

During the 2011 and 2012 seasons, the Panthers placed more than 30 players on injured reserve, leaving Koncz and his staff with the challenge of finding capable replacements. That the Panthers were able to finish strong in both of those seasons is a testament to their ability. While winning five of the last six games in 2012, the Panthers started Josh Thomas (waivers) and James Dockery (free agent) at cornerbacks.

The long list of veteran talent bought to Carolina by Koncz includes Jeremy Shockey, Stephen Davis, Ricky Proehl, Mark Fields, Brandon Short, Rodney Peete, Brentson Buckner, Terry Cousin, Marlon McCree, Al Wallace, Mike Wahle and Chris Harris. Free agent signee Jake Delhomme became the winningest quarterback in team history.

The Pro Personnel Department also stepped forward in 2004 when Carolina reached midseason with 14 players on injured reserve, leaving a challenge of finding replacements. Several of those late arrivals played instrumental roles in the team's second-half rally and reinforced Koncz's reputation for finding talent in a variety of ways.

Year after year, his recommendations have turned out to be blue chips. In 2003 it was a trio of veteran free agent finds – Davis, who set a club rushing record with 1,444 yards, Delhomme and Proehl, the big play wide receiver – who helped propel the Panthers to the NFC Championship and Super Bowl.

Sorting through the free agent pool to find the right fit for the Panthers is nothing new for Koncz. In 2002, five free agent finds proved vital for Carolina. Peete started at quarterback for all seven victories, Lamar Smith was the team's leading rusher, Fields led the team in tackles, Cousin was a starting cornerback and Wallace provided invaluable depth at defensive end.

The work of Koncz and his staff also resulted in the signing of guard Kevin Donnalley and Buckner at defensive tackle, both starters on the 2003 Super Bowl team. The pro personnel department is constantly evaluating NFL rosters in preparation for a need, and their time has been well spent. Whether waiver acquisitions such as Rod Smart or former starter Reggie Howard, high profile free agents such as Davis or unknown talents such as Delhomme, it is Koncz's job to be ready to fill a need. When an injury creates that need at a moment's notice, the pro personnel department must be ready to respond with recommendations.

Koncz has been scouring for hidden gems since 1998 when he joined the scouting department. He was named the Panthers director of pro scouting after working as the Panthers manager of football operations. In addition to his work of player evaluations throughout the NFL, he coordinates the advance scouting of opponents.

Koncz is a 1990 graduate of the University of Kansas, where he was a three-year letterman and three-year starter for the Jayhawks, serving as team captain his senior season. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1993 and joined the Panthers in July 1994, starting in the ticketing department. A native of Chicago, Ill., Koncz is a graduate of Barrington High School. He lives in Fort Mill, S.C., and has a daughter, Milena, and a son, Nolan.

JEFF BEATHARD

COLLEGE SCOUT

SOUTHERN OREGON STATE
BORN JUNE 9, 1964
EIGHTEENTH NFL SEASON / SEVENTH PANTHERS SEASON

Jeff Beathard joined the Panthers in 2008 as an area scout. Prior to joining the Panthers, Beathard was the Director of Player Personnel and running backs coach in 1991 for the Orlando Thunder of the World League of American Football, which was later known as NFL Europe. In 1992 he became the Director of Player Personnel and tight ends coach for the San Antonio Riders of the WLAF. Beathard began his NFL scouting career with the Los Angeles Rams in May 1992 through 1994. He moved to the San Diego Chargers scouting department from 1994-2002 and scouted for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats from 2003-05.

GAME 1 SEATTLE 12 – CAROLINA 7

September 8, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Russell Wilson threw for 320 yards with one touchdown and Steven Hauschka connected on two field goals from 27 and 40 yards to lead Seattle to a 12-7 victory over Carolina. Much like last year's meeting between these two teams, the contest was a defensive battle. After a scoreless first quarter, Hauschka's 27-yard field goal gave the Seahawks a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter. Carolina answered with the game's first touchdown. Quarterback Cam Newton's 27-yard pass to tight end Greg Olsen – the Panthers' largest gain of the day – kick started an 11-play, 80-yard drive. After wide receiver Steve Smith slipped a tackle for an 8-yard gain on third-and-seven, Newton found Smith over the middle for a 3-yard touchdown, giving the Panthers a 7-3 lead with 3:13 left in the first half. Seattle reached midfield by the two-minute warning, but defensive end Charles Johnson engulfed Wilson for a sack and forced a fumble that he then recovered to allow the Panthers to maintain their lead at halftime. In the second half, Hauschka cut the Carolina lead to 7-6 with a 40-yard field goal late in the third quarter. On their next possession, the Seahawks produced the game-winning score. One play after Seattle wide receiver Stephen Williams dropped a wide-open pass a few yards from the right pylon, Wilson launched a deep pass for wide receiver Jermaine Kearse for a 43-yard touchdown reception at 10:13 of the fourth quarter. Seattle's two-point pass attempt fell incomplete, but it proved to be inconsequential. The Panthers were marching downfield for a potential game-winning touchdown against the Seattle Seahawks late in the fourth quarter when safety Earl Thomas jarred the ball loose after a 16-yard gain and defensive tackle Tony McDaniel recovered it with 5:25 remaining. From there, the Seahawks ran out the clock for a 12-7 victory in the season opener at Bank of America Stadium.

GAME 2 BUFFALO 24 – CAROLINA 23

Ralph Wilson Stadium • Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills erased a six-point deficit in the final two minutes to defeat the Panthers 24-23 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Buffalo jumped out to a 3-0 lead after Dan Carpenter connected on a 55-yard field goal with 10:41 left in the second quarter. Carolina responded before halftime marching 90 yards in 10 plays and putting seven points on the board when quarterback Cam Newton fired a strike over the middle to tight end Greg Olsen for a 13-yard touchdown with just 13 seconds left in the half. A Carpenter field goal cut the lead to one in the third quarter before the Panthers took advantage of a Bills' special teams penalty to push the lead to eight. Carolina punter Brad Nortman's punt was fair caught, but the Bills were flagged for holding, giving the Panthers an automatic first down. Four plays later, Newton and wide receiver Ted Ginn connected for a 40-yard touchdown. Running back Fred Jackson answered with a 4-yard touchdown run on the ensuing Bills possession, and wide receiver Robert Woods hauled in a quick slant for the two-point conversion to tie the game with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter. The Panthers defense proceeded to force two successive turnovers – a strip-sack by safety Quintin Mikell that defensive tackle Dwan Edwards recovered, and an interception by Luke Kuechly. Despite the field position those takeaways provided (Buffalo 16 and 26-yard line), the Panthers settled for a pair of field goals and a 20-14 lead. Buffalo cut into the lead once again when Carpenter converted on a 48-yard field goal with 7:13 remaining. Following an 11-play drive that took 5:35 off the clock, the Panthers kicked a 39-yard field goal on fourth-and-1 with 1:38 remaining. Kicker Graham Gano's third conversion of the day gave Carolina a 23-17 lead. The Bills had no timeouts remaining and needed to produce an 80-yard touchdown drive. After eight plays, 78 yards and a Colin Jones interception that was erased due to a pass interference penalty, the Bills were two yards away from the end zone with six seconds left when Buffalo rookie quarterback E.J. Manuel found wide receiver Stevie Johnson open in the left corner of the end zone for the game-winning score.

GAME 3 CAROLINA 38 – NEW YORK GIANTS 0

September 22, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

The Panthers outgained the New York Giants 402 yards to 150 and sacked quarterback Eli Manning seven times, tying a then team record in a 38-0 shutout in Week Three. Carolina dominated every aspect in the fifth shutout in franchise history and the first shutout since 2008. The 38-point margin of victory also represented the largest in team history. Carolina got off to a fast start after fullback Mike Tolbert bounced right and charged into the end zone to give Carolina a 7-0 first quarter lead on fourth-and-inches from the Giants' 2-yard line. Then, following a Giants' three-and-out, the Giants stole the momentum when Steve Weatherford's punt bounced off Richie Brockel, and New York recovered at its 38-yard line. But the Carolina defense was unfazed, promptly forcing another three-and-out. Early in the second quarter, quarterback Cam Newton's pass for wide receiver Brandon LaFell was picked off by cornerback Aaron Ross, who returned it to the Carolina 17-yard line. A holding call on Giants left tackle Will Beatty negated a touchdown run and a seven-yard sack by Hardy forced New York to eventually attempt a 38-yard field goal, which missed wide left. Panthers kicker Graham Gano drilled a 53-yard field goal to cap the ensuing possession before the Carolina offense looked to add to the 10-point lead with 3:45 left in the first half. Newton completed five passes on the 13-play, 65-yard scoring drive, which ended with LaFell running a corner route and hauling in a 16-yard touchdown with 12 seconds remaining in the second quarter. At halftime, the Panthers had allowed just 18 yards and held a 17-0 advantage – the third-consecutive game in which they led at halftime. This time, Carolina made sure that lead stayed well intact. The Panthers received the kickoff to start the second half and picked up right where they left off, executing a six-play, 80-yard scoring drive. Newton found LaFell for a 20-yard touchdown to give Carolina a 24-0 lead. After rookie cornerback Melvin White, playing in his first NFL game, recorded his first career interception, Newton powered his way into the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown with 6:58 left in the third quarter to make it 31-0. Wide receiver Ted Ginn completed the scoring at the start of the fourth quarter, running under a deep pass from Newton for a wide-open 47-yard touchdown.

GAME 4 ARIZONA 22 – CAROLINA 6

October 6, 2013
University of Phoenix • Glendale, AZ

Carson Palmer threw for 175 yards and one touchdown and the Cardinals defense registered seven sacks leading Arizona to a 22-6 victory over Carolina. On the first series of the game, rookie strong safety Robert Lester recorded his second career interception on a flea-flicker pass into the end zone, and the Panthers offense proceeded to drive down to the Arizona 11-yard line without facing a third down. Quarterback Cam Newton was a perfect 5-for-5 for 70 yards before an incompletion and Graham Gano kicked a 22-yard field goal to give Carolina a 3-0 lead. Free safety Mike Mitchell's sliding interception at the goal line with 32 seconds left in the second quarter precipitated a five-play, 47-yard drive that led to a 51-yard field goal by Gano to end the half. The Panthers led just 6-3 despite outgaining the Cardinals 259-118 and recording 15 first downs compared to Arizona's seven. Powered by three second-half takeaways and a relentless pass rush, the Cardinals went on to score 19 unanswered points in the second half. The Cardinals produced a 10-play, 85-yard scoring drive on their first possession of the second half. Rashard Mendenhall's 1-yard touchdown run gave Arizona a 10-6 lead. On the Panthers next drive left guard Amini Silatolu injured his right knee and was replaced by Travelle Wharton for the rest of the game and Newton was sacked by Calais Campbell for a safety. Carolina had new life when linebacker Luke Kuechly picked off Carson Palmer's pass intended for Larry Fitzgerald on the ensuing Cardinals possession and returned it to the Arizona 29-yard line late in the third quarter. The fourth quarter began with third-and-3 from the Arizona 11, and Newton targeted Smith on a quick slant. Linebacker Daryl Washington reached out with one hand to intercept the pass and returned it to midfield. Cardinals kicker Jay Feely converted a 50-yard field goal with 3:42 remaining to extend the lead to 15-6. Arizona's seventh sack forced a fumble that was recovered by cornerback Antoine Cason and returned to the Carolina 9-yard line. That led to a 7-yard touchdown catch by tight end Jim Dray. Linebacker Karlos Dansby intercepted an Newton pass with 1:54 remaining to wrap things up for Arizona.

GAME 5 CAROLINA 35 – MINNESOTA 10

October 13, 2013
Mall of America Field at HHH Metrodome • Minneapolis, MN

Panthers quarterback Cam Newton completed 20-of-26 passes and accounted for four touchdowns, three in the air and one on the ground, leading Carolina to a 35-10 victory over Minnesota. Safety Mike Mitchell intercepted Vikings quarterback Matt Cassel on the game's opening possession, and the Panthers took advantage of the early mistake as Carolina manufactured a 15-play, 62-yard touchdown drive that featured two conversions on fourth-and-one. Fullback Mike Tolbert gained two yards to extend the drive at the Minnesota 30-yard line, and wide receiver Steve Smith hauled in a 2-yard touchdown on the second fourth down to give the Panthers a 7-0 lead. The Panthers used a 14-play, 82-yard drive to double the lead in the second quarter. Carolina needed just one third-down conversion before quarterback Cam Newton tossed a shovel pass to Tolbert, who broke several tackles on his way up the middle for a 10-yard touchdown. Minnesota entered the red zone for the first time late in the second quarter, looking to cut Carolina's lead to one possession before halftime. But the Panthers forced consecutive incompletions from the 4-yard line, and the Vikings had to settle for a 22-yard field goal from Blair Walsh in the closing seconds. The Panthers held a halftime lead for the fifth consecutive game, and they quickly extended their advantage. Newton found wide receiver Brandon LaFell wide open down the right sideline on the third play of the second half, and thanks to a crushing block from fellow-wideout Ted Ginn to erase the last defender, LaFell trotted into the end zone for a 79-yard score. Following LaFell's touchdown, Minnesota went three-and-out. The Panthers then produced a 53-yard drive that culminated with Newton scrambling for a 7-yard touchdown, extending the lead to 28-3. Mitchell's second interception of the game set up Tolbert's second touchdown midway through the fourth quarter, as the fullback plowed into the end zone for a 1-yard score. Quarterback Derek Anderson and several other backups took over for the final two possessions, and the Vikings added a late touchdown before Carolina closed out its first road victory of the season.

GAME 6 CAROLINA 30 – ST. LOUIS 12

October 20, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

The Carolina Panthers improved to 3-3 on the year with a 30-15 win over the St. Louis Rams at Bank of America Stadium as quarterback Cam Newton completed 15-of-17 passes for 204 yards and a touchdown, while DeAngelo Williams paced the ground attack with 40 yards on 15 carries. Cornerback Captain Munnerlyn got things going for Carolina early returning a Sam Bradford interception for a 45-yard touchdown on the first play of the game. Carolina never trailed from there. After stopping St. Louis on downs at the Carolina one-yard line, fullback Mike Tolbert was tackled in the end zone for a safety cutting the Panthers lead to 7-2. The teams exchanged field goals before Tolbert recorded a 1-yard touchdown late in the second quarter to give the Panthers a 17-5 halftime lead. After Graham Gano converted a 31-yard field goal in the third quarter, the Rams cut the lead to 20-12 courtesy of a 4-yard touchdown pass to running back Zac Stacy. Carolina countered with an eight-play 72-yard drive culminated by a 19-yard touchdown from wide receiver Steve Smith late in the third quarter to extend the Panthers lead to 27-12. Gano closed the scoring for Carolina with a 50-yard field goal and the Panthers won consecutive games for the first time in the season.

GAME 7 CAROLINA 31 – TAMPA BAY 13

October 24, 2013
Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, FL

Panthers quarterback Cam Newton completed 23-of-32 passes for two touchdowns and rushed 11 times for 50 yards and one score, leading Carolina to a 31-13 victory over Tampa Bay. Following the opening kickoff, the defense quickly forced a three-and-out by Tampa Bay. From there, the offense took over. Carolina converted four third downs en route to taking the lead. Newton faked a handoff on third-and-goal, avoided the oncoming rush, and lofted a pass across the field to tight end Greg Olsen, who was wide open in the left side of the end zone for a one-yard score. After that 15-play, 70-yard drive ate up nearly nine minutes, the Buccaneers took over and cut into the lead with a 47-yard field goal from Rian Lindell. Carolina responded, taking only six plays and 3:42 to move 80 yards on their next touchdown drive. Thanks to a 22-yard run by fullback Mike Tolbert and a 35-yard catch and run on third-and-three by wide receiver Ted Ginn, Carolina moved into the red zone quickly. On the next play, running back DeAngelo Williams made two defenders miss on his way to a 12-yard touchdown run. Williams' first touchdown of the season gave Carolina a 14-3 lead in the second quarter, but the Panthers went three-and-out and Lindell converted a 48-yard field goal on the ensuing Tampa Bay possession, and the Panthers entered halftime with a 14-6 lead. Carolina took advantage of good field position to extend its lead in the third quarter. Starting on their own 47-yard line following a Buccaneers punt, the Panthers faced fourth-and-1 at the Tampa Bay 28. Tolbert gained two hard-fought yards and the drive continued. Newton then charged up the middle for a 19-yard gain and later took it into the end zone himself for a 6-yard score on third-and-goal, giving the Panthers a 21-6 lead midway through the third quarter. Newton later hit Tolbert on a play-action pass a 3-yard touchdown, and the Panthers led 28-6 five seconds into the fourth quarter. Kicker Graham Gano added a 29-yard field goal before the Buccaneers scored a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

GAME 8 CAROLINA 34 – ATLANTA 10

November 3, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Carolina intercepted Atlanta quarterback Matt Ryan three times and held the Falcons to 289 total yards, leading the Panthers to a 34-10 victory on Sunday. The Panthers took advantage of a takeaway to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Linebacker Luke Kuechly intercepted Ryan's pass intended for tight end Tony Gonzalez over the middle at the Atlanta 39-yard line. Carolina then drove to the 4-yard line before fullback Mike Tolbert plowed through a hole up the gut for the game's first score. After Matt Bryant converted a 28-yard field goal for the Falcons at the start of the second quarter, the Panthers extended their lead with a perfect fourth-down play. On fourth-and-1 from the Atlanta 14, Newton faked a handoff, rolled right and found Greg Olsen wide open in the end zone for the touchdown. The Falcons cut the lead to four when Ryan connected with Gonzalez for a 17-yard touchdown with just under two minutes left in the first half. Carolina appeared poised to score again in the final seconds before halftime, but as Newton attempted to throw the ball away, cornerback Robert Alford intercepted the pass and tapped both feet in the back of the end zone. Graham Gano's 55-yard field goal in the third quarter gave the Panthers a 17-10 lead. The fourth quarter then belonged to the Panthers. Carolina held a 17-10 lead early in the fourth quarter when Newton threw a pass to wide receiver Brandon LaFell on third-and-6 from the Atlanta 38-yard line. The ball was thrown just past the outstretched arms of cornerback Asante Samuel, allowing LaFell to make the catch and turn upfield. As LaFell sprinted toward the end zone, Samuel chased him down and popped the ball out of his hands. LaFell gathered the loose ball at the Atlanta 8-yard line for a 30-yard gain. On the next play, Newton ran off right end for a touchdown to give Carolina a 24-10 lead. Then, on the second play of the ensuing Falcons' possession, cornerback Drayton Florence jumped in front of a Ryan pass intended for wide receiver Drew Davis and returned it 38 yards for a touchdown. The Panthers extended their lead to 31-10. In a handful of plays, a hard-fought, one-possession game was suddenly decided.

GAME 9 CAROLINA 10 – SAN FRANCISCO 9

November 10, 2013
Candlestick Park • San Francisco, CA

Carolina limited San Francisco to 151 total yards and kicker Graham Gano kicked a 53-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to give the Panthers a 10-9 victory over the 49ers. The 49ers opened the contest with a nine-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a 53-yard Phil Dawson field goal to give the 49ers a 3-0 lead. Dawson added two more field goals in the first half from 43 and 25 yards out before Carolina broke through on the scoreboard. The game's lone touchdown came from Carolina running back DeAngelo Williams, who slipped away from two defenders for a 27-yard score to cut the San Francisco lead to 9-7 late in the second quarter. The second half scoring was limited to Gano, who missed his first field goal attempt of the year in the third quarter from 48 yards out. Gano bounced back by converting a 53-yard field goal with just over 10 minutes remaining in the game to give the Panthers their first lead. Following Gano's conversion, the 49ers ensuing drive started at San Francisco's 12-yard line. The 49ers went three-and-out. Later, when the Panthers were forced to punt from the San Francisco 41-yard line, former 49er Colin Jones downed the punt at the one-yard line. The 49ers gained 11 yards in seven plays before punting once again with 2:35 remaining. Running back Jonathan Stewart carried the ball on the next two plays with San Francisco using its first two timeouts. Newton then found wide receiver Steve Smith for nine yards on third-and-eight. Smith was forced out of bounds and 2:12 remained. Stewart fumbled on the following play, but fullback Mike Tolbert recovered. Two plays later on third-and-two, Newton never controlled the snap from center Ryan Kalil and the ball fell to the ground where Newton recovered. After the 49ers burned their final timeout, punter Brad Nortman punted the ball through the end zone. Only 1:02 remained. On first down, defensive tackle Dwan Edwards sacked San Francisco quarterback Colin Kaepernick for a six-yard loss. On the next play, cornerback Drayton Florence clinched the dramatic victory with an interception of a Kaepernick pass intended for wide receiver Mario Manningham, Carolina's second takeaway of the game. The Panthers sacked Kaepernick – who had never been sacked more than four times in his career – six times. They limited the 49ers to 2-for-13 on third-down conversions. Carolina outgained San Francisco 250 yards to 151.

GAME 10 CAROLINA 24 – NEW ENGLAND 20

November 18, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Carolina Panthers quarterback Cam Newton rushed for 62 yards and tossed three touchdowns, including the game-winner to wide receiver Ted Ginn with 59 seconds remaining leading Carolina to a 24-20 victory over New England on Monday Night Football. The Panthers took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when Newton connected with wide receiver Brandon LaFell for a 9-yard score. The Patriots threatened to cut into that lead or level the score early in the second quarter when Carolina was called for two penalties that extended the drive. But on first down at the Panthers' 12-yard line, rookie defensive tackle Kawann Short stripped the ball from Patriots running back Steven Ridley, and defensive end Mario Addison made the recovery. Carolina turned that takeaway into a 43-yard Graham Gano field goal. Stephen Gostkowski countered with a 42-yard field goal for New England's only points before halftime. The Patriots got the ball to start the second half and produced an eight-play, 80-yard touchdown drive that didn't require a single third down conversion. Brady connected with tight end Rob Gronkowski on a quick slant for a nine-yard score. Carolina answered by re-taking the lead on the next possession. Newton engineered a 13-play, 81-yard drive that lasted 8:21 and ended with tight end Greg Olsen hauling in a perfectly thrown pass in the corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown. New England came right back to tie the game at 17. This time the Patriots moved 80 yards in nine plays and Ridley found the end zone with a 1-yard run early in the fourth quarter. After a Carolina three-and-out, New England took advantage of a short field, and Gostkowski converted a 26-yard field goal to give the Patriots their first lead, 20-17, with 6:32 left in the game. The Panthers began their seventh and final possession on their own 17. Newton converted two consecutive third downs with his legs, then a holding call on Patriots safety Devin McCourty on third-and-seven gave the Panthers a first down at the New England 31-yard line with 2:06 remaining. Three plays later, Newton threw a strike to Ginn, who hauled in a short pass on a hitch route, then slipped away from cornerback Kyle Arrington and outran two New England defenders to the end zone for a 25-yard touchdown with 59 seconds remaining in the game. On the ensuing drive, Brady was pressured into three consecutive incompletions, but he converted on fourth-and-10 with a 23-yard gain to tight end Rob Gronkowski. Three timeouts and five plays later, the Patriots had the ball on the Carolina 25-yard line with six seconds left. Brady found wide receiver Aaron Dobson for a 7-yard gain and he ran out of bounds with three seconds left. On the game's final play, Brady targeted Gronkowski. The pass was underthrown, and rookie safety Robert Lester hauled in the interception in the end zone. Linebacker Luke Kuechly was tied up with Gronkowski in the back of the end zone, but the officials ruled that there was no foul on the play.

GAME 11 CAROLINA 20 – MIAMI 16

November 24, 2013
Sun Life Stadium • Miami, FL

The Carolina Panthers improved to 8-3 on the year with a 20-16 win over the Miami Dolphins as quarterback Cam Newton completed 19 of 38 passes for 174 yards with one touchdown and rushed for 51 yards and a score. Carolina started fast with cornerback Josh Thomas reeling in a tipped pass for an interception to start the game, but the Panthers failed to turn that takeaway into points, as Graham Gano's 35-yard field goal attempt was blocked. Gano gave Carolina a 3-0 advantage later in the first quarter on a 52-yard field goal, but Miami quickly responded with a 53-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Tannehill to Mike Wallace. The Dolphins then extended their lead, but Carolina limited the damage with two red zone stops. Miami settled for three field goals in the second quarter to build a 16-3 advantage. The Panthers offense had four second-quarter possessions. The first two were three-and-outs, and the third ended with an interception. The fourth led to unlikely and much needed points before halftime. Carolina began the drive at its own 20 with 1:01 left. A 10-yard run by running back Jonathan Stewart on third-and-two allowed Newton to spike the ball with 17 seconds left. The Panthers gained 15 yards on the next two plays and had eight seconds left. Newton then bobbled a low shotgun snap before finding wide receiver Brandon LaFell for a 28-yard gain. LaFell ran out of bounds with one second left, and Gano converted a 46-yard field goal as time expired. Carolina opened the second half with a 14-play, 83-yard touchdown drive. Newton reached the end zone on a 5-yard read-option up the middle to cut the Miami lead to three. For the third consecutive week, the Panthers trailed in the fourth quarter and came back to earn a victory. Their comeback hopes hinged on a fourth-and-10 from the Carolina 20-yard line with 2:33 remaining in the game and the Panthers trailing 16-13. Newton fired a strike to wide receiver Steve Smith for a 19-yard gain to keep the drive alive. Two plays later, Carolina faced third-and-two. Newton gained eight yards on a designed run, and safety Reshad Jones was flagged for a late hit out of bounds, advancing the ball to the Miami 29. After four plays and three timeouts by Miami, the Panthers had second-and-goal from the 1-yard line. Newton faked a handoff and connected with Greg Olsen in the back of the end zone for the winning touchdown.

GAME 12 CAROLINA 27 – TAMPA BAY 6

December 1, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Carolina quarterback Cam Newton threw for 263 yards and two touchdowns, while rushing for 68 yards and a score, leading the Panthers to a 27-6 victory over Tampa Bay. After falling behind 3-0, Newton ignited the Carolina offense with a 56-yard scramble. Newton ran left and thought about going down for a solid 15-yard gain. Then he realized wide receiver Steve Smith sealed off cornerback Darrelle Revis, and he went for more. Not only did Smith block Revis, but he blocked the cornerback into hard-charging safety Mark Barron, which allowed Newton to sprint downfield before getting tripped up at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. Newton targeted wide receiver Brandon LaFell later in the first quarter, but his high pass went off LaFell's hands and into the grasp of safety Keith Tandy. It was one of Newton's two interceptions on the day. Tampa Bay turned that takeaway into a 53-yard field goal from Rian Lindell. The Buccaneers were in position to take the lead early in the second quarter, but on third-and-goal from the Carolina 4-yard line Tampa Bay quarterback Mike Glennon lost control of the ball as he wound up to pass, and defensive tackle Dwan Edwards pounced on it at the Carolina 19. The Panthers converted their first takeaway into a 23-yard field goal by Graham Gano to increase their lead to 10-6. Newton increased it to 17-6 with his 1-yard touchdown leap on fourth-and-goal with 25 seconds left in the first half. Following an interception by safety Mike Mitchell on an underthrown deep ball intended for wide receiver Vincent Jackson, Carolina needed just four plays to find the end zone again in the third quarter. Wide receiver Ted Ginn ran a stop-and-go and beat Revis for a game-breaking 36-yard touchdown catch down the sideline to give the Panthers a 24-6 lead. A 22-yard field goal by Gano closed out the scoring.

Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, LA

The Panthers' eight-game winning streak ended at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with a 31-13 loss to the New Orleans Saints. Highlighted by a 21-point second quarter, the Saints scored 31 consecutive points and moved into sole possession of first place in the NFC South with the victory. Carolina's offense started with two methodical scoring drives, but both ended with field goals from Graham Gano; the first from 45 yards and the second from 24 yards. Following a three-and-out on their first series and after gaining just one yard on the first two plays of their second possession, the Saints faced third-and-nine late in the first quarter. That's when quarterback Drew Brees connected with wide receiver Marques Colston for 21 yards. Brees capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass to Colston to give New Orleans a 7-6 lead early in the second quarter. After the Panthers punted from midfield, New Orleans produced an 11-play, 86-yard touchdown drive. Brees found Colston for a 15-yard touchdown strike. Later, the Saints took over on their 24-yard line with 2:01 left in the first half. Seven plays and 1:43 later, Brees connected with tight end Jimmy Graham for a 5-yard touchdown. A 19-yard field goal from Saints kicker Garret Hartley was the only scoring in the third quarter. Gano missed a 49-yard attempt – just his third miss of the season – on Carolina's first drive of the second half. Graham scored his second touchdown on an eight-yard catch early in the fourth quarter, extending the New Orleans lead to 31-6. Carolina responded with its lone touchdown on the ensuing possession. After the Saints' fifth sack of the game created fourth-and-goal from the 17, Newton fired a pass to wide receiver Steve Smith for a 17-yard touchdown in the corner of the end zone with just over five minutes remaining.

GAME 14 CAROLINA 30 – NEW YORK JETS 20

December 15, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Quarterback Cam Newton completed 16-of-24 passes for 273 yards with a score, while Captain Munnerlyn paced the defense with two sacks and a pick-six leading Carolina to a 30-20 victory over the New York Jets on Sunday. With 3:49 to go in the first half, the Panthers and Jets were tied at 6 following a 33-yard field goal from Jets kicker Nick Folk. The game's first touchdown came on the first play of Carolina's ensuing drive, as running back DeAngelo Williams took a screen pass 72 yards down the sideline. After sprinting away from linebacker David Harris, Williams ran behind wide receiver Brandon LaFell, whose block on cornerback Dee Milliner allowed Williams to glide into the end zone untouched. New York cut the lead to three in a third quarter that included five Carolina penalties for 44 yards, but the fourth quarter belonged to the Panthers. Early in the fourth quarter with the Panthers leading 16-13, the Jets lined up to punt from their own 30-yard line. Linebacker Jason Williams came up the middle and stuffed Ryan Quigley's punt, allowing the Panthers' offense to take over at the Jets' 14-yard line. Four plays later, fullback Mike Tolbert extended Carolina's lead to 10 with a 1-yard touchdown run. Prior to that, the Jets had created a surge of their own after denying the Panthers on fourth-and-two deep in New York territory and turning that into a 1-yard touchdown run from defensive tackle Sheldon Richardson in the third quarter. The Panthers defense responded midway through the fourth quarter when Munnerlyn picked off a pass and returned it for a 41-yard touchdown to give Carolina a 30-13 lead with 8:17 remaining. New York tight end Jeff Cumberland added a late eight-yard touchdown reception, but after a tense third quarter, Carolina was able to comfortably close out its 10th win of the season.

GAME 15 CAROLINA 17 – NEW ORLEANS 13

December 22, 2013
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Wide receiver Domenik Hixon caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Cam Newton with 23 seconds left to give Carolina a 17-13 victory over New Orleans and clinch a playoff berth. After a scoreless first quarter, the Saints took a 6-0 lead behind two field goals from Shayne Graham in the second quarter. But that lead was erased in a matter of seconds. On third-and-six from the New Orleans 36-yard line with two minutes to go in the first half, linebacker Thomas Davis made a leaping interception on a pass intended for wide receiver Kenny Stills. On the first play following the turnover, running back DeAngelo Williams burst through a hole up the middle for a 43-yard touchdown to give Carolina a 7-6 lead at halftime. The Panthers extended their lead to 10-6 when Graham Gano kicked a 40-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. But the Saints regained the lead with an 11-play, 97-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter. Brees floated a 5-yard touchdown pass to tight end Jimmy Graham with 6:31 left in the game. Later, after a Carolina punt was downed at the New Orleans 26 at the 1:57 mark, the defense forced the three-and-out needed, setting the stage for the playoff-clinching comeback. With 55 seconds left, the Panthers offense took the field at its own 35-yard line with no timeouts. On the first play of the decisive series, Newton hit wide receiver Ted Ginn in stride on a crossing route over the middle for a 37-yard gain. Ginn scooted out of bounds with 46 seconds remaining. After an incomplete pass, Newton connected with tight end Greg Olsen for a 14-yard gain over the middle to the Saints' 14-yard line. Newton then spiked the ball with 28 seconds left. On second down, Newton went to the end zone. Hixon – split out left in place of wide receiver Steve Smith, who left the game with a knee injury – ran a corner route. Safety Malcolm Jenkins blitzed Newton, but fullback Mike Tolbert knocked Jenkins off course just in time and Newton released the ball, finding Hixon for the game-winning score.

GAME 16 CAROLINA 21 – ATLANTA 20

December 29, 2013
Georgia Dome • Atlanta, GA

Quarterback Cam Newton completed 15-of-27 passes for 149 yards with two touchdowns, leading Carolina to a 21-20 victory over Atlanta. The Falcons started fast producing an 11-play, 80-yard touchdown drive on the game's opening possession. Jason Snelling's nine-yard touchdown reception was the first touchdown the Panthers had allowed on an opening drive all season. Matt Bryant extended Atlanta's lead to 10 with a 42-yard field goal in the second quarter. The defense jumpstarted Carolina when cornerback Melvin White picked off an Atlanta pass and stumbled into the end zone for the 8-yard touchdown. The Panthers defense then forced a punt, and the offense took over at the Carolina 4-yard line with 4:17 left before halftime. Newton methodically marched the Panthers to midfield, mixing the run and the pass. Then, on third-and-4 from the 48-yard line, Hixon drew a pass interference penalty to advance the ball to the Atlanta 31 with 45 seconds left. After an 11-yard scramble by Newton and incomplete pass to the end zone, fullback Mike Tolbert took a handoff up the middle and trucked his way to a thunderous 17-yard gain to the Falcons' 3-yard line with 24 seconds left. Newton had an easy choice on first-and-goal. After a play-action fake, he found wide receiver Ted Ginn open for the three-yard touchdown to give Carolina a 14-10 halftime lead. Atlanta took a 17-14 lead in the third quarter when Ryan connected with wide receiver Roddy White for a 39-yard touchdown. But the Panthers answered with a 10-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. On third-and-goal, the pocket held and Newton surveyed his options before firing a strike to tight end Greg Olsen for a 7-yard touchdown. Bryant converted a 37-yard field goal for Atlanta midway through the fourth quarter, cutting Carolina's lead to one, after a Carolina punt the Falcons took over at their own 12-yard line with 1:20 remaining and no timeouts down 21-20. With the Carolina contingent of the crowd roaring, Atlanta center Joe Hawley snapped the ball to Ryan in the shotgun. But Ryan wasn't expecting the snap, and it rolled all the way back to the 27-yard line where Snelling made the recovery, but with little time remaining.

SAN FRANCISCO 23 – CAROLINA 10

Quarterback Colin Kaepernick threw for 196 yards and one touchdown and running back Frank Gore added 84 yards on 17 carries leading San Francisco to a 23-10 victory over Carolina in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. San Francisco jumped out to a 6-0 lead on two field goals from Phil Dawson. The Panthers appeared poised to take their first lead on the first play of the second quarter, but quarterback Cam Newton was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line. However, the defense promptly forced a three-and-out. Ted Ginn then returned the punt 24 yards to the San Francisco 31-yard line. On the next play, Newton lofted a perfect pass down the sideline to Steve Smith for a 31-yard touchdown. The Panthers were in prime position to score another touchdown on their next possession. But both Newton and fullback Mike Tolbert failed to score on runs from the 1-yard line, forcing Carolina to settle for a 24-yard Graham Gano field goal and a 10-6 lead. The 49ers proceeded to score in the closing seconds before halftime. A pass interference penalty wiped out an incompletion on third-and-nine, giving San Francisco first-and-goal at the 1-yard line. Quarterback Colin Kaepernick connected with tight end Vernon Davis for a 1-yard touchdown two plays later. The 49ers found the end zone again on their first drive of the third quarter after a Carolina three-and-out. Kaepernick connected with Boldin for a 45-yard gain to set up the score. Kaepernick then rushed for a 4-yard touchdown to build a 20-10 lead. Davis' touchdown catch in the second quarter capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Kaepernick's touchdown run in the third quarter culminated an eight-play, 77-yard drive. Dawson converted a 34-yard field goal to extend the San Francisco lead to 13 in the fourth quarter. Carolina's comeback hopes were extinguished with an interception at the San Francisco 9-yard line by safety Donte Whitner with 4:22 left in the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
CAROLINA 26 – DALLAS 17

January 5, 1997
Ericsson Stadium • Charlotte, NC

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy, 67º, Wind SW 15 mph - ATTENDANCE: 72,808 - TIME: 2:58

In the first playoff game in team history, the Carolina Panthers stuck to a formula that had worked all season, using an opportunistic offense, a Sam Mills led defense, solid special teams and an uplifting record-sized crowd to defeat the defending Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys 26-17.

Running back Anthony Johnson earned his sixth 100-yard game of the season behind a performance by the offensive line which did not allow quarterback Kerry Collins to be sacked all day. Collins completed a workmanlike 12 of 22 passes for 100 yards and two touchdowns and directed the team to 17 first-half points. The defense supplied a team effort with interceptions by Chad Cota, Pat Terrell and Mills and sacks by Lamar Lathon and Les Miller, while successfully executing three goal-line stands from inside their own five-yard line. Kicker John Kasay converted on all four field goal attempts.

The Cowboys took a 3-0 lead on a 22-yard field goal before a Collins pass to Wesley Walls following a 68-yard drive put the Panthers ahead 7-3. After trading touchdowns, the Cowboys got within three following a Panthers safety when a snap sailed over punter Rohn Stark's head. Cota's interception on Dallas' ensuing possession, however, set up a 24-yard Kasay field goal and a 17-11 halftime lead.

The two teams traded field goals in the third quarter and again to begin the fourth, with Chris Boniol converting twice from 21 and Kasay twice from 40. After the Panthers downed a Stark punt at the one, Terrell's interception set up a Kasay 32-yard conversion before Mills' interception and return to the one, sealed the game.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP
GREEN BAY 30 – CAROLINA 13

January 12, 1997
Lambeau Field • Green Bay, WI

WEATHER: Cold and Windy, 3º, Wind W 10 mph - ATTENDANCE: 60,216 - TIME: 3:04

On a day with wind chill tempratures at more than 20 below zero, the Carolina Panthers surrendered 17 second-quarter points and 479 yards of total offense to the Green Bay Packers and fell one game short of the Super Bowl, 30-13.

The Panthers got ahead early following a Sam Mills interception at the Green Bay 12, which was returned to the two. Kerry Collins found fullback Howard Griffith all alone in the end zone two plays later for a 7-0 Carolina lead.

After Brett Favre drove the Packers for their first touchdown, the Panthers replied with a John Kasay 22-yard field goal following a Lamar Lathon recovery of a Favre fumble. The Packers came back with a touchdown and a field goal before the half, however, and held a 17-10 advantage at the break.

Both teams traded field goals to open the second half before a Dorsey Levens 66-yard reception off a screen set up a Packers touchdown. A Packers fourth-quarter field goal following a Panthers fumble supplied the 30-13 margin.

Mills led the defense with 14 tackles and an interception while Collins completed 19 of 37 passes for 215 yards, with a touchdown and two interceptions. Willie Green led all Panthers in receiving with 51 yards on five receptions.

NFC WILDCARD GAME
CAROLINA 29 – DALLAS 10

January 2, 2004
Ericsson Stadium • Charlotte, NC

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy, 63º, Wind SSW 9 mph - ATTENDANCE: 72,324 - TIME: 2:56

Behind a dominating defense, Carolina defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 29-10, at Ericsson Stadium to reach the second-round of the playoffs for the first time since the 1996 season. The Panthers held the Cowboys to 204 yards of total offense while not committing any penalties or turnovers.

Quarterback Jake Delhomme completed 18-of-29 passes for 273 yards and a touchdown, running back Stephen Davis rushed 26 times for 104 yards, wide receiver Steve Smith caught five passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, and kicker John Kasay converted on all five of his field goal attempts.

On Carolina's third play from scrimmage, Delhomme hit Smith in the flat, and Smith raced 70 yards to the Cowboys one-yard line. Four plays later Kasay booted his first field goal from 18 yards out, and the Panthers never looked back.

Carolina took advantage of field position later in the first quarter as Kasay made his second field goal, this time from 38 yards, to give the Panthers a 6-0 lead. In the second quarter, Carolina started another drive in Dallas territory, and Davis rambled 23 yards for a touchdown to give the Panthers a 13-0 lead.

Cowboys kicker Billy Cundiff put Dallas on the board with a 37-yard field goal late in the second quarter. Carolina got one more field goal from Kasay to close out the first half leaving the score 16-3 at the break.

The Panthers added a 32-yard Delhomme-to-Smith touchdown pass and Kasay's fourth field goal to stretch the lead to 26-3 before Dallas answered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Quincy Carter. Kasay's fifth field goal with 3:12 remaining provided the final margin.

Panthers middle linebacker Dan Morgan led the defense with 12 tackles, while Al Wallace, Kris Jenkins and Reggie Howard contributed a sack a piece. Davis posted his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
CAROLINA 29 – ST. LOUIS 23 (2 OT)

January 10, 2004
Edward Jones Dome • St. Louis, MO

WEATHER: Played Indoors on Artificial Turf - ATTENDANCE: 66,165 - TIME: 4:06

The Panthers defeated the host St. Louis Rams 29-23 in double overtime at the Edward Jones Dome to earn their second trip to the NFC Championship Game. Steve Smith took a pass from Jake Delhomme and sprinted to a game-winning touchdown to closeout the game, the fifth-longest in NFL history and the longest ever for the Panthers.

The Carolina defense held the Rams to two field goals in the first half before Panthers wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad recovered a deflected lateral by Delhomme in the end zone for a touchdown. Each team added a field goal each, to give the Panthers a one-point lead at the half, 10-9.

The Panthers built an 11-point lead in the fourth quarter off a Brad Hoover touchdown and John Kasay field goal, but the Rams scored 11 points in the last 2:39 of regulation to force overtime.

The Panthers took the opening drive of overtime to the St. Louis 22-yard line, but a delay-of-game penalty canceled Kasay's successful 40-yard field goal. Kasay then missed the second attempt three plays later from 45 yards out.

The Rams drove to the Carolina 35-yard line on their first possession in overtime, but kicker Jeff Wilkins, who had already made five field goals, was inches short on a 53-yard attempt.

The Rams then drove to the Panthers 38-yard line on their ensuing possession when cornerback Ricky Manning Jr. outwrestled Rams receiver Torry Holt for the ball and came down with the interception.

Facing third-and-14 from their own 31-yard line on the first play of the second overtime, Delhomme hit Smith on a slant pattern for 69 yards and the game-winning points.

The Panthers outgained the Rams 485 yards to 380, including 216 to 64 in rushing yardage. They won the time of possession battle 41:06 to 34:04 and held the Rams to just six possessions and 12 points through the first three quarters.

Delhomme completed 16-of-26 passes for 290 yards, with one touchdown and one interception for a quarterback rating of 96.6. Running back DeShaun Foster stepped in for an injured Stephen Davis, who left the game in the second quarter, and contributed 95 yards on 21 carries.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP
CAROLINA 14 – PHILADELPHIA 3

January 18, 2004
Lincoln Financial Field • Philadelphia, PA

WEATHER: Mostly Cloudy, 33ºWind WNW 19 mph ATTENDANCE:67,862TIME:2:58

In just their ninth season of existence, the Panthers claimed a bid to Super Bowl XXXVIII by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-3 at Lincoln Financial Field in the NFC Championship game. Carolina took advantage of four interceptions, three by rookie cornerback Ricky Manning, to hold the Philadelphia offense to only one field goal.

The first quarter was scoreless as both teams punted twice. Early in the second quarter, a Carolina fumble was recovered by Jermaine Wiggins to gain the first down and allow the Panthers to continue what would be the first scoring drive of the game.

On first-and-10 from the Philadelphia 24-yard line, Delhomme hit wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad in the end zone for the score. A John Kasay PAT kick gave the Panthers a 7-0 lead.

The Eagles answered with a 14-play, 44-yard drive that culminated with a 41-yard field goal by David Akers. The Eagles were driving again in the final two minutes of the half when Manning grabbed his first interception.

On the opening drive of the second half, the Eagles drove to the Panthers 18-yard line, but Manning again came up with the big play, intercepting Donovan McNabb at the 14-yard line.

A hit by Mike Minter on Eagles wide receiver James Thrash enabled Manning to record his third interception and put the Panthers in position for their final score. With 4:18 remaining in the third quarter, running back DeShaun Foster produced the game's second touchdown, breaking five tackles and reaching over the goal line on a one-yard run.

The Eagles went three-and-out on their final two possessions of the third quarter, and their final threat ended midway through the fourth quarter when backup quarterback Koy Detmer, who replaced an injured McNabb, was intercepted by Dan Morgan at the Carolina 11-yard line to thwart the Eagles final significant scoring opportunity.

Morgan led Carolina with 13 tackles and one interception while Brentson Buckner contributed 1.5 sacks. Running back Stephen Davis added 76 yards on 19 carries as the Panthers rushed for a total of 155 yards.

SUPER BOWL XXXVIII
NEW ENGLAND 32 – CAROLINA 29

February 1, 2004
Reliant Stadium • Houston, TX

WEATHER: Played indoors on grass - ATTENDANCE: 71,525 - TIME: 4:05

In their first Super Bowl, the Carolina Panthers scored 19 fourth-quarter points to tie New England with one minute remaining, but kicker Adam Vinatieri converted a 41-yard field goal to give the Patriots a 32-29 victory for their second Super Bowl victory in three seasons.

The first quarter was scoreless, with help from the Panthers defense who kept New England off the board by blocking one Vinatieri field goal and withstanding another missed attempt.

In the second quarter, a Carolina fumble on the 19-yard line was recovered by defensive tackle Richard Seymour and set up a Tom Brady five-yard touchdown pass to Deion Branch. The touchdown broke the tie with 3:10 remaining in the half, the longest a Super Bowl had ever gone without a score.

Quarterback Jake Delhomme led the Panthers on an eight-play, 95-yard drive, the second longest in Super Bowl history, that culminated with a Delhomme-to-Steve Smith touchdown pass from 39 yards out.

Brady completed four of six passes for 78 yards, and with 23 seconds remaining in the half, hit wide receiver David Givens with another five-yard touchdown pass to put the Patriots back in front, 14-7.

Kris Mangum returned a kickoff to the Panthers 47-yard line and after a 21-yard run by Stephen Davis, the Panthers called timeout with five seconds left. John Kasay booted a 50-yard field goal as the first half expired to make it 14-10.

On the second play of the fourth quarter, Patriots running back Antowain Smith scored on a two-yard run that extended the New England lead to 21-10.

DeShaun Foster finished a six-play, 81-yard Panther drive with a 33-yard touchdown run, the fourth-longest run in Super Bowl history. Carolina missed on their two-point attempt and the score was 21-16.

New England drove down the field and threatened to extend their lead once again, but Reggie Howard intercepted Brady's pass in the end zone and returned it to the 10-yard line.

Three plays later, Delhomme hit Muhsin Muhammad for an 85-yard touchdown, giving the Panthers their first lead with 7:06 remaining in the game. The Panthers missed on another two-point attempt, keeping the score 22-21.

The scoring continued as the Patriots drove 68 yards in 11 plays, ending with a Mike Vrabel touchdown. New England converted their two-point attempt and led 29-22 with 2:55 remaining.

Delhomme then drove his team 80 yards on just seven plays, hitting Ricky Proehl across the middle for a 12-yard touchdown that tied the game with 1:13 remaining. However, Brady mounted one last scoring drive to set up Vinatieri at the Carolina 34-yard line for the winning kick.

NFC WILDCARD GAME

CAROLINA 23 – NEW YORK GIANTS 0

January 8, 2006
Giants Stadium • East Rutherford, NJ

WEATHER: Sunny, 44º, Wind NW 6 mph - ATTENDANCE: 79,378 - TIME: 2:39

Carolina's defense held a New York Giants offense that ranked third in the NFL in points per game scoreless en route to notching the third shutout in team history with a 23-0 victory over the Giants in the NFC Wild Card game. Carolina became the first team to register a shutout on the road in the playoffs since 1980 when the Los Angeles Rams posted a 9-0 victory at Tampa Bay (01/05/80) in the 1979 NFC Championship. The Panthers forced five sacks and five turnovers, converting four of them into 16 points. The defense yielded a season-low 132 total net yards to New York, who ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense during the regular season with an average of 361.7 yards per game. Running back DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards to help the Panthers accumulate 223 yards rushing on 45 attempts and maintain possession for 42:45. The time of possession was the highest in team history for any game, bettering the previous record of 41:51 at New Orleans (12/05/04). The team's rushing attempts tied for the most in team history and the rushing yards equalled the second-highest total. Safety Marlon McCree matched his career-high with two interceptions.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS
CAROLINA 29 – CHICAGO 21

January 15, 2006
Soldier Field • Chicago, IL

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy, 40º, Wind SE 15 mph - ATTENDANCE: 62,209 - TIME: 3:23

Carolina totaled 434 yards against the NFL's second-ranked defense in a 29-21 victory over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. The contest marked the Panthers fourth consecutive postseason road victory to equal the NFL record for the most consecutive road postseason victories, previously accomplished by Dallas from 1975-81. The Panthers became the fourth team since 1990 to win an NFC Divisional Playoff game on the road. Carolina allowed one sack against the Bears after allowing a season-high eight in their regular season contest at Chicago (11/20/05) and scored 29 points against a Bears defense that allowed a League-low 12.9 points per game during the regular season and a total of 61 points at home during the regular season. Wide receiver Steve Smith amassed 218 yards receiving, the most in team history and fourth-highest total in a playoff game in NFL history, and two touchdowns on 12 receptions, which tied for the second-most catches in NFL postseason history. Quarterback Jake Delhomme registered his second career 300-yard passing effort in the playoffs and his fifth postseason game with a passer rating of 100 or more. The Panthers defense yielded only three-of-13 third down conversions against the Bears. With the victory, head coach John Fox became only the fifth head coach in NFL history to record at least four postseason road wins.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP
SEATTLE 34 – CAROLINA 14

January 22, 2006
Qwest Field • Seattle, WA

WEATHER: Overcast, 48º, Wind S 14 mph - ATTENDANCE: 67,837 - TIME: 3:09

Seattle's defense forced four turnovers and held the Panthers to 212 total yards in a 34-14 victory in the 2005 NFC Championship Game. Carolina was limited to 36 yards by the Seahawks fifth-ranked rushing defense and converted only one-of-nine third down opportunities. Interceptions on consecutive Carolina possessions enabled Seattle to transform a 7-0 lead into a 17-0 advantage in the second quarter. Wide receiver Steve Smith established an NFL record for the most catches in a postseason with 27, surpassing the previous mark of 23 set by Anthony Carter with Minnesota in the 1987 postseason. Smith's 59-yard punt return for a touchdown enabled him to become the first player in NFL history to score a touchdown on a run, pass and punt return in the same postseason. Running back Nick Goings, who started in place of the injured DeShaun Foster, was shaken up in the first quarter and did not return to the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFFS

SAN FRANCISCO 23 – CAROLINA 10

January 12, 2014
Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

WEATHER: Sunny, 54º, Wind W 8 MPH- ATTENDANCE: 73, 784 - TIME: 1:05 PM

Quarterback Colin Kaepernick threw for 196 yards and one touchdown and running back Frank Gore added 84 yards on 17 carries leading San Francisco to a 23-10 victory over Carolina in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. San Francisco jumped out to a 6-0 lead on two field goals from Phil Dawson. The Panthers appeared poised to take their first lead on the first play of the second quarter, but quarterback Cam Newton was stopped for no gain on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line. The defense promptly forced a three-and-out and Ted Ginn returned the punt 24 yards to the San Francisco 31-yard line. On the next play, Newton lofted a perfect pass down the sideline to Steve Smith for a 31-yard touchdown. The Panthers were in position to score another touchdown on their next possession. But both Newton and fullback Mike Tolbert failed to score on runs from the 1-yard line, forcing Carolina to settle for a 24-yard Graham Gano field goal and a 10-6 lead. The 49ers proceeded to score in the closing seconds before halftime. A pass interference penalty wiped out an incompletion on third-and-nine, giving San Francisco first-and-goal at the 1-yard line. Quarterback Colin Kaepernick connected with tight end Vernon Davis for a 1-yard touchdown two plays later. The 49ers found the end zone again on their first drive of the third quarter after a Carolina three-and-out. Kaepernick connected with Anquan Boldin for a 45-yard gain to set up the score. Kaepernick then rushed for a 4-yard touchdown to build a 20-10 lead. Davis' touchdown catch in the second quarter capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Kaepernick's touchdown run in the third quarter culminated an eight-play, 77-yard drive. Dawson converted a 34-yard field goal to extend the San Francisco lead to 13 in the fourth quarter. Carolina's comeback hopes were extinguished with an interception at the San Francisco 9-yard line by safety Donte Whitner with 4:22 left in the game.

February 1 — The Panthers play in Super Bowl XXXVIII at Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas, losing to the New England Patriots 32-29.

August 13 — The Panthers retired jersey number 51, making Sam Mills the only player in team history to receive the honor. Mills played for the Panthers from 1995-97 and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1996. After retiring in 1997, Mills became a scout for the Panthers in 1998 and served as the team's linebackers coach from 1999-2004. He became the first former player and second member of the Panthers Hall of Honor in 1998.

2006

January 8 — The Panthers registered the first road playoff shutout in the NFL since 1979, defeating the New York Giants, 23-0. In holding scoreless a New York team that ranked third in the League in scoring during the regular season, Carolina became the first NFL team to register a shutout on the road in the playoffs since the Los Angeles Rams posted a 9-0 victory at Tampa Bay (1/5/80) in the 1979 NFC Championship. Ironically, the last time head coach John Fox coached a playoff game at Giants Stadium, his defense also pitched a shutout. With Fox as the Giants defensive coordinator, New York shut out Minnesota, 41-0, in the 2000 NFC Championship. The shutout was Carolina's third in team history as the Panthers limited New York to 132 total net yards and rushed for 223 yards on offense.

January 15 — The Panthers won their fourth consecutive road game in the playoffs to equal the NFL record for the most consecutive postseason road victories, previously accomplished by the Dallas Cowboys from 1975-81. With the win, head coach John Fox became only the fifth head coach in NFL history to record at least four postseason victories. Wide receiver Steve Smith amassed 218 receiving yards and two touchdowns on 12 receptions. His receiving yardage ranked as the most in team history and the fourth-highest postseason total in NFL history. His 12 catches tied for the second-highest total in NFL postseason annals.

December 28 — Carolina defeats the New Orleans Saints, 33-31, on a John Kasay game-winning 42-yard field goal with one second remaining to clinch the NFC South division title and earn the franchise's fourth-ever playoff berth. 2011

January 11 — The Panthers name Ron Rivera as the fourth head coach in franchise history. Carolina is the first head coaching position for Rivera, who previously served as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers beginning midway through the 2008 season. A linebacker on the Chicago Bears 1985 Super Bowl Championship team, Rivera also served as defensive coordinator for the Bears from 2004-06.

April 28 — The Panthers select quarterback Cam Newton with the No. 1 overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft. Newton is named Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year after a record-setting rookie campaign. Newton accounted for a NFL rookie record 35 total touchdowns (21 passing, 14 rushing), passed for a then NFL rookie record 4,051 yards and rushed for an NFL quarterback record 14 touchdowns.

2012

January 29 — Carolina makes the first logo refinement in the team's 18-year history. It has been designed to provide a more aggressive, contemporary look to the logo while making it more three-dimensional for ever-increasing digital use. The primary tweaks made by the creative department of the National Football League are primarily in the features in the eyes and mouth.

2013

January 9 — The Panthers name Dave Gettleman as general manager. Carolina is the first general manager position for Gettleman, who came from the New York Giants where he served as the senior pro personnel analyst in 2012 after working as director of pro personnel the previous 13 years. Gettleman was a part of six Super Bowl teams, including three winners. He was with Buffalo in 1990 and 1991, Denver in 1997 and the Giants in 2000, 2007 and 2011.

February 2 — Panthers linebacker Luke Kuechly is named 2012 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year, becoming the second player in Panthers history to win the award, joining Julius Peppers (2002). Kuechly tallied a league-leading 164 tackles (103 solo) to become the first rookie since San Francisco's Patrick Willis in 2007 to lead the NFL in tackles. The Panthers are just the fourth team to have back-to-back offensive or defensive rookies of the year (Cam Newton – 2012 Offensive) since the Associated Press started presenting the awards in 1967.

December 29 — The Panthers defeat the Atlanta Falcons, 21-20, at the Georgia Dome to finish the regular season with a 12-4 record, earning the NFC South division title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. After starting the season with a 1-3 record, the Panthers won 11 of their final 12 regular season games – including a franchise record eight-game winning streak – to secure the No. 2 seed in the NFC and a first-round bye.

2014

February 1 — Ron Rivera is selected as Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, and linebacker Luke Kuechly wins Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year, accepting the honors during the NFL Honors award show in New York. Rivera received 21.5 votes. Kansas City Chiefs coach Andy Reid finished second with 13.5 votes. He is the second coach in Panthers history to earn the award, joining Dom Capers (1996). Rivera led Carolina to 12 wins, the NFC South division title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. Kuechly received 13 votes to edge Robert Mathis of the Indianapolis Colts by 1.5 votes. With Kuechly captaining the defense, the Panthers ranked second in the NFL in total defense and scoring defense in 2013, allowing 301.2 yards and 15.1 points per game. He is the first Panthers player to win the award.

The Carolina Panthers summer training camp home is at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C. The Panthers are housed in Wofford's 60,000 square-foot Richardson Physical Activities Building, which boasts a spacious weight room, locker room and training facilities in addition to coaches offices and meeting rooms.

A member of the Southern Conference and NCAA Division I, Wofford is one of the smallest schools in the nation playing Division I football with its enrollment of 1,600. The Terriers compete in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), formerly known as Division I-AA. The Terriers won the Southern Conference title in 2003, 2007, 2010, and 2012. In 2003 the team advanced to the FCS national semifinals, while reaching the quarterfinals in 2007, 2010, and 2012.

Academically, Wofford's football team is traditionally among the top 10 percent in the nation as judged by the Academic Progress Rate (APR). The Terriers have placed 121 student-athletes on the Academic All-Southern Conference team in the last ten years, more than double the number of the second place team.

The Wofford men's basketball team won the 2010, 2011, and 2013 Southern Conference Championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In 2010, head coach Mike Young was named the national Mid-Major Coach of the Year and Noah Dahlman earned All-America honors. In the 2010 NCAA Tournament, the Terriers played Wisconsin. In 2011 the team faced BYU in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Brad Loesing was named a first team Academic All-American in 2012. Wofford played Michigan in the second round of the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

The men's soccer team and baseball team have also won Southern Conference Championships in recent years and advanced to NCAA Tournaments.

Among its alumni, the athletic program counts Panthers Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson as well as former Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry, ESPN personality Wendi Nix, and MSNBC anchor Craig Melvin. Wofford receives strong support from its alumni and friends. The Terrier Club, with 100 percent of all contributions supporting scholarships for Wofford student-athletes, raised a record $1.6 million in 2013.

Wofford consistently lands on 'best value' lists in various national college guides and publications. Among those are the 2013 editions of Kiplinger's Personal Finance, US News and World Report and The Princeton Review. The Village, Wofford's apartment-style housing for senior students, has also received a number of national recognitions.

Having conducted its first session during the 1854-55 academic year, Wofford is one of only a handful of American colleges of that era to have operated continuously on its original site. The first independent college in South Carolina to receive a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Wofford has a proud history. The entire 150-acre campus is maintained as a national arboretum. Wofford ranks fourth in the nation among baccalaureate institutions in the percentage of students receiving academic credit for studies abroad.

PANTHERS HALL OF HONOR

On September 21, 1997 former team president Mike McCormack became the first member of the Panthers Hall of Honor. In 1998, he was joined by former linebacker Sam Mills, who entered as the first former Panthers player to be so honored.

Both Mills and McCormack, who retired as president of the Carolina Panthers in March 1996, were recognized for their high contributions to the Panthers organization with a life-sized bronze statue sculpted by Todd Andrews, who created the famous bronze Panthers that flank each stadium entrance. The statues were placed at the northeast corner of the stadium where they will be joined by statues of future inductees.

"There is no one more appropriate than Mike to start our Hall of Honor," said Panthers Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson at the time of McCormack's induction. "The Carolina Panthers would not even exist without Mike's contributions, and he epitomizes all we want the Panthers to symbolize."

While McCormack's National Football League career spanned five decades and a number of teams, he may have left his most indelible mark on the Panthers. Starting as a consultant in 1989, McCormack provided an invaluable contact for the Richardson ownership group as they lobbied NFL ownership and hierarch for credibility early in the expansion process. After the Panthers overcame overwhelming odds to land the franchise by a unanimous vote in October 1993, McCormack was first general manager before being named president.

If anyone could meet McCormack's standard it is Mills, who became a Panthers standard-bearer.

"Sam Mills has meant a lot to this organization and has set a high standard for our players both on and off the field. It is only fitting that he is recognized with the Carolina Panthers highest honor," said Jerry Richardson.

While Mills had a long NFL career, his accomplishments with the Panthers were the basis of his selection. His memorable interception return for a touchdown spurred Carolina to the first win in team history in 1995, and his interception against Dallas sealed the Panthers win in the NFC divisional playoff following the 1996 season.

Mills played 15 years as a professional, starting 171-of-181 NFL games and earning five Pro Bowl selections. Mills appeared in his final Pro Bowl as a representative of the Panthers in 1996 at the age of 37.

Regarded as one of the most savvy players in the game, Mills led his team in tackles 10 times and eclipsed the 100-tackle plateau in eight seasons. As a prized unrestricted free agent in 1995, he became the cornerstone of the Panthers defense and was the only player to start every game during the Panthers first three seasons.

With McCormack and Mills, an administrator and coach were recognized in the Hall of Honor. In the opening regular season game against Green Bay in 2004, the PSL owners who helped make the stadium and franchise possible were also honored at halftime. The Panthers sold over 60,000 Permanent Seat Licenses to help fund the construction of Bank of America Stadium.

Kelli Bartik, a longtime sports anchor for WCCB Charlotte, has been covering the Carolina Panthers since the 2004 season. Kelli earned her bachelor's degree in communication from Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, N.C., where her father was the defensive coordinator for the Runnin' Bulldogs. The daughter of a football coach, Kelli always knew she wanted to be involved in sports – whether it was playing, or just telling people about them.
